

Commissions Details And Rules

Rules these can and most likely will be expanded as necessary

1. Please be patient. I do this as a hobby and I work a full-time job that takes primarily concern. I will do my best to complete stories in a timely and reasonable fashion.
2. I am willing to write pretty much any kink or idea. The worst case scenario you will get from me is a refusal.
3. The only kinks I will not do are Scat, Watersports, Cubs/Kid (Nsfw Stuff) and Detailed Gore Example being avidly describing some being ripped apart with blood and guts flying everywhere. Food gore etc is more than fine.
4. This isn't necessarily a rule but I will do my best to get back to any and all messages sent to be regarding Commission requests even if it is a no I will attempt to explain why I am not accepting it and might even be willing to do it with a bit of adjustment.
5. You are not required to have a setting it will not increase or decrease the price nor will the addition of one of my own characters in your story idea/request do to the fact I don't charge for such things
6. You are more than welcome to include my own characters within your story requests or even some Media character examples being Toriel Kass etc although adding Media characters will reduce the chance of me accepting sadly. They can be difficult to write compared to other peoples sona's/ characters do to the fact I either know little of their personality or not much is shown
7. Please do not submit multiple Comm Requests at the same time. I am ok with doing Series or interconnecting stories but please do not spam me with requests. I look at them each and attempt to get back to people in a timely manner but once slots are full they are full. I do encourage you to keep trying and do not feel down. I will not repeatedly accept comms from the same people if there is a line up of requests I will alternate.
8. Once I send you the complete file of your story feel free to post it wherever you want I only ask that you credit me and please add a link to my FA page so more people can find me.

Pricing

I charge an upfront fee of twenty (20) USA Dollars which will get you six (6) pages which equals about three thousand words (3,000). Every thousand (1000) words after that will cost another ten dollars which are roughly two (2) pages each if the word count lands around (5343) i'll only charge you (20) additional dollars because I will not round up less there is less than a hundred (100) words to the next thousand (1000) also I only accept Paypal

Waiting List/ Active Comm

I will be working on these one at a time for a while or forever not sure the current story i'm working on will be labeled the Active Comm on my userpage. While if multiple people have commision ideas i will pick the earliest one submit that i accept and i will offer to the next two people a position on the Queue or Waiting list. This means once i finish with the active comm i will contact you and see if you still want your commission done and will proceed with the general process following your answer if its a yes

General Process

Depending on what ideas or how many details you give me unless you have already made your own outline. I will create a rough outline or the bones of the story for you to look over and critique. Once an outline has been finalized I will begin to work on your story and send you a google drive link. Once the first two pages of your story or so are finished I will stop and request you to look over them and make sure I am not only getting your characters right but that it is up to your liking currently. From there I will continue till finished. Keep in mind changes or additions are allowed at any time and I will most likely make a few of my own suggestions to you. Upon the finishing of your story, I will go back over and read it again along with an attempt to weed out any grammatical or spelling mistakes not caught already. Before asking you one final time if there are any changes you would like and once approved I will send you an invoice via PayPal for the remaining cash (this can be done all at once or split if necessary) Once payment is received I will send you the final copy either via discord or Gmail.

Ych/Trade/Freebies

Ych is going to a severe rarity. These will pretty much either be much cheaper than a commission say ten bucks (10) or less and will vary in length but charge zero the base price. These are personal ideas with rough premade outlines that I will work with the purchaser to change somewhat to their liking.

Trade's

I fully accept trades and these will get you a story of pretty much any reasonable length no matter the actual value of the trade so long as I accept whatever your wishing to trade

Freebies

These are primarily for close friends on slow periods. Although on the off chance that I absolutely love written out your idea or end up making the story a fair bit long do to said love of written out the idea there is the rare possibility I will wave the additional charges for the thousand (1000) word count again this is extremely rare and will not often happen

Premade Settings

These are premade settings for if you can't think of one yourself or don't want me to make one up or just need a base for an idea. They will have a list of kink options but feel free to ask for ones not listed too

Lily's Livestream Studio- Lily's Livestreams prominently feature live soft vore that can lead to digestion or conversion or outright explosively orgasmic sex acts that can also involve inflation the big hermaphrodite Lugia's just a bit too much for her little snuggly hubby Azul the poor short feminine four foot and six-inch tall male fox-crow hybrid just can't handle him more often then not himself and although not often on the streams will occasionally join in if requested-

Kink options featured in this premade setting: Soft vore, Digestion or conversion, Absorption/Merging, Cum inflation/Inflation, Weight Gain, Or plain old raunchy sex

The Mad Monk's Brew's "Adult Coffee and Tea Shop" - Whether coming in to simply enquire what an adult beverage and pastry shop have to offer or coming in for a nice chat with the owner Jakul or perhaps a friend or two while a variety of music plays on the ol record player in this homey old fashion styled brewhouse of adult coffee teas and foods. Or perhaps you've come in for a lewdier purpose In mind to see the kinky old crow of an owner perhaps you'd like to help him refill his stock of drink supplies or let him use you to help make some of his delicious dishes or desserts inside yourself or perhaps you'd like to experience a sexual change into one of his fine adult dishes either permanently or being brought back once he's finished his delightful cooking.-

Kink Options in this premade setting: Food play, Food/Drink, or candy transformations, Body Modifications/ Changes, Public Sex, etc

Alongside these this setting can also feature a simple coffee shop story involving two characters talking or hanging out although be aware everything in Jakuls shop contains some sort of sexual fluid or was prepared inside of someone or is formerly someone

One kink in this setting I don't have a word for if anyone knows it please let me know. This ranging from Jakul using your various sexual organs to create batters, creamers, and other substances within them be
