

Fundraising Tips to Boost Your Great Aussie Athlete BBQ

Your fundraising page

- Share your fundraising page – it’s the easiest way to collect donations and support our Aussie athletes.
- Remember to include your BBQ/Captain name in the Supporter Message when donating (e.g. “Dave BBQ”).
- Fundraising Page
<https://asf.org.au/campaigns/aussie-athlete-fund/great-aussie-athlete-bbq>

Make Fundraising Fun and Simple

- Gold coin sausage sizzle: Classic, easy, and always a winner
- BBQ cook-off: Charge an entry fee and let guests vote for the winner
- Office or club bake-off: Auction off baked treats
- Auction the official AAF Supporter Jersey (purchase here)
- Raffle a “BBQ King/Queen” apron or a donated prize
- Backyard or office cricket challenge
- Host an Aussie athlete trivia round

Quick Games That Raise Quick Dollars

Charge a gold coin or $5 donation for participation in:

- Guess the lollies in a jar.
- A cornhole competition
- Longest sausage flip challenge
- Wheel of BBQ Fortune (spin to win small prizes)
- Egg and spoon races, sack races or Tug-of-war.

Promote Your BBQ Early

- Share your fundraising page online (see above).
- Ask friends and family to include your Captain name (e.g. "Dave BBQ") in the Supporter Message when they donate online
- Use our hashtag #GreatAussieAthleteBBQ and tag @aussieathletefund when promoting online
- Set a fundraising goal and share your progress
- Promote your BBQ around the office/Club/neighbourhood - use our invite template, simply fill in your BBQ details and print.

Boost your donations with a challenge or incentive

- "Double donation": Get a mate to match contributions for the whole day or just one hour
- Corporate match: ask your workplace if they'll match funds for a day
- Ask guests to round their donation up to the nearest $10
- Offer "VIP BBQ seating" for top donors