- 5) Divya Chakshuh symbolizes an attitudinal change born out of understanding that happens in a well-controlled mind.
- It requires tremendous intellectual drill and mental refinement because we are not seeing anything new but we are seeing something old with a new attitude. That is why Kṛṣṇa gives four chapters of training and then in the 11th chapter we get the culmination.

- 7) The 3 phases:
- a) Ascharyam/being wonderstruck
 - b) Bhayam/fear
 - c) Sharanagati/Total surrender
- 8) Arjuna goes through an overwhelming range of emotions in this chapter including wonder and extreme fear and is often dumbstruck. During those times after Bhagavan has given his narration and Arjuna is silent, Sanjaya fills in the gap.

9) Arjuna is not prepared to see the Vishwa rupam because he has not done the work to prepare the mind. He is using borrowed “eyesight” to see the grandeur and hence feels overwhelmed and terrified by it. This is just like being asked to scuba dive in a coral reef with appropriate gear. If one is prepared it is enjoyable. If one has no prior preparation, it feels terrifying.
