- Clay Westlake suggested that we clean out the culverts and ditches.

- Tony will check with the fire department to see if they can help clean out the culverts.
- The board reflected a refund from the Road Maintenance Fund.

New Business

- A team of volunteers revised the MRCSD Bylaws and the board will review the revision.
- The MRCSD needs to create a website per LAFCO rules. Josh Peterson volunteered to create a website.
- The MRCSD needs more funding and volunteers. We are exploring options for creating more funding.
- The board voted to utilize Zoom for future board meetings to save cost, provide safety, and provide an easy platform for everyone to easily join the meetings.

Open Discussion

- February 5th, 2022 meeting at the Community Hall at 10:00 a.m. Stress the meeting as a New Fast track to maintaining and renewing our roadways by professionals. Important meeting to attend for community input and support.
- Ken Bender asked Don Peoples if the passage over the covert on the fire escape exit can hold a fire truck. Don responded saying that it could, but would need to be re-engineered

Adjournment

Clay made a motion to close the meeting and Jim seconded the motion. Meeting was adjourned at 11:05 am on November 13th, 2021.

Note from board president:

With the holiday season and the new year approaching, we send all of our neighbors and friends a wish of happiness with our best intentions as your servants.!

You're proud President,
Tony Lucero
