Chapter 3: Taking Responsibility

Location: ???

Fire Nation Ship

Naruto, now chained to a Fire Nation ship surrounded by women, he had slept with one of them, consequently knocking her up. All of them looked at him with different emotions on their faces.

Azula, Suki, Yue, and several others looked at the blonde bastard with anger. They held their children in their arms, some with amusement like Toph, but all had one thing in common: they wanted the blonde to take responsibility for their children.

"How," Naruto asked, "did these women from different nations, some of whom were at war with each other, work together so well?"

"We all decided to put our differences aside; we acknowledged that we would never catch you with force alone, so we came up with a plan that would work on a man like you," Suki said with a smirk. "We knew that you would be able to resist a hot piece of ass if you saw it in front of you."

"We found and hired June not only for her looks but she is a skilled mercenary," Azula took over explaining, "we had him track you and seduce you to letting your guard down."

"Now what to do with you," Yue stated, her eyes never leaving Naruto, watching his every movement. Ty Lee had partially paralyzed the blonde, but you could never be too careful with him.

Naruto looked at the women nervously; they had all become more beautiful since he last saw them, and childbirth had made their bodies fat in all the right places.

Mai, who was one of the more slender women he had ever fucked, now had tits that looked about a large C cup, wide hips, and if she turned around, he would guess a fat ass.

"What the hell are you thinking about in a time like this, you bastard," Song shouted in rage as she saw the blonde getting hard looking at Mai, her hormones were going crazy because of her pregnancy and she felt jealous of the other woman.

Mai smirked at the effect she had on the blonde and the jealousy she could feel from the other women.

"We have to stop fighting among ourselves and figure out what we are going to do with this piece of shit," Suki said with a scowl on her face, Naruto's eyes were drawn to her large bouncing breasts.

"What is there to discuss? He will be returning with me to the Fire Nation," Azula stated, with Mai and Ty Lee backing her up. "He will marry me and take my friends as his consorts."

"What, no way! He will be marrying me," Yue said, glaring at Azula. "He got me pregnant first, so it's only right that he marries me first."

"I say we cut the bastard's cock off and solve any future problems he may cause," Suki said viciously, her fellow Kyoshi warriors nodding in agreement.

"What," Naruto yelled in fright, he knew Suki was a crazy bitch and was angry at him, but he didn't expect her to go that far.

"No, we are not doing that," Toph said, shooting the idea down. "I still want to have some fun with him."

"I agree with Toph on not cutting his dick off," Song said, as she too was furious with Naruto, but she did want to maim him. Her mother agreed with her on this.

"Look, let's all just calm down and try to figure this out. We could all come to a decision that we will all be happy with," Katara said, trying to mediate the discussion so that it wouldn't turn into a battle royal.

The water bender didn't know what to feel about Naruto; he was an irresponsible son of a bitch who knocked her up, but he was also good at teaching her water bending, and he showed her kindness in the time they spent together.

"Maybe cutting his manhood off isn't a good idea," one of the Kyoshi warriors spoke up again, shocking Suki with his agreement.

"Fine, but what are we going to do to punish him for abandoning us after knocking us up," Suki stated. She saw that the others would not agree to her original idea, but she would not stand and watch the blonde get off with a slap on the wrist.

"How about you let me go, and we can have an orgy," Naruto suggested, but was ignored as all the women started to look at each other with mistrust.

Naruto saw this and he knew that he could use this to get away. Now that the woman caught him, the reason for their little team-up was all but over. They are enemies again.

"He will be coming with me," Azula stated, her look making it clear she will not change her mind no matter what. "You bitches will be compensated for helping me capture him."

"Who the fuck are you calling a bitch, fire crotch," Yue shot back with fury, "you will have to get through me to take him, you slut. He had a lot to answer for in our home."

"It looks like you want to die, peasant," Azula stated, as fire began to flow from her hands. "I was willing to just pay you whores and let you all go, but I can see you are too stupid to just quit while you are ahead."

"Bring it on, Fire Nation dog," Yue growled, "I will drown you here and now."

All the women started to take up fighting stances, including Song, who was pregnant, and her mother got out there, not wanting their unborn baby to get hurt. Those with infants handed them to their guards, like Azula and Yue, and Suki made two Kyoshi warriors take their children away from the seemingly upcoming battle.

"Wait, why are we fighting each other?" Katara said, looking between the women who looked ready to kill each other. "We should talk this out and come up with a compromise."

Usually, women like Yue and Ty Lee would live peacefully, but ever since becoming mothers and having the baby daddy run out on them, they became much more vicious in dealing with certain situations, especially when it comes to their deadbeat baby daddy.

"Go suck a dick, mom," Princess Yue said with a growl, shooting a glare at the shocked Katara, who was wondering what she had done to deserve that insult.

"Go pop out your own baby after this deadbeat abandons you, then you can talk," Ty Lee stated with a scowl on her face. "But for now, keep your talk of compromise to yourself if you don't want a foot shoved up your ass."

Toph, who was listening, burst out laughing at the situation. She and her mother had come along with her father, who was a giant pussy. He hadn't said a word since he saw all the powerful and influential women targeting the blonde bastard.

"Aren't you going to throw in your two cents, Dad?" Toph asked with a mischievous smile on her face, her blind eyes looking directly at her father.

"Well, I don't think it would be in my best interest to make any comment at this time," Lao replied, feeling a shiver, he could feel the killing intent in the air.

"Is that so, mom is sending horny looks at Naruto right now, I guess you are okay with that," Toph said, making Lao look at his wife Poppy, who was indeed looking at Naruto with lust.

"I don't care anymore," Lao stated, his shoulders slumped in defeat, Poppy, ever since cheating on him, had become a succubus, her sex drive always high but now it was like she was trying to kill him via sex.

"Hahaha, so you are a cuck, makes sense; mom was always the one who wore the pants in the family," Toph said with a chuckle.

Toph hit the nail on the head; Poppy was actually from a noble family that was above the rank of the one Lao was from. She was technically the true head of the Beifong family, but she was a free spirit much like her daughter, so she shoved all the work on her husband.

Naruto heard all this and actually felt kind of bad for Lao, but his wife was so tasty that he couldn't help himself even now she was sending him bedroom eyes, her tight robes that barely hid her milk-filled teats were getting lower and lower until he started to see her nipples.

"This is your last chance; accept my deal or die," Azula growled, her blue flame raging in her hands.

Princess Yue just flipped her off and sent a jet of water blades her way. Like a signal was given, the battle began. Suki and Kyoshi warriors, Azula and her two friends, Toph who was only fighting for fun, she didn't really care that Naruto abandoned her although she was going to kick him in the balls from the pain she suffered giving birth.

Katara didn't know what she could do to stop their fighting, but thankfully, Sokka and Aang, who had stayed silent, pulled her to the side.

Aang would usually try to mediate as the avatar, but his wise mentor once told him that there are some situations that even the avatar should stay out of, and this is one of them.

The avatar found it funny that women from all nations could unite for one purpose, but once that goal was completed, they turned on each other. It made him think about what he could do about the war and if this might be the same outcome even if he stopped the Fire Nation.

"Die bitch," Suki roared as she attacked Ty Lee with her battle fan, the other Kyoshi warriors were battling Mai and helping their leader, Yue and Azula were throwing water and fire around left and right trying to kill one another.

Toph, who had some rocks hidden in her clothes, used them to attack anyone who got too close to her. Lao and Poppy kept their distance, watching the chaos unfold.

Naruto smirked at all this; he didn't have to do anything, and they had already given him a way to escape with them distracted.

The blonde had long since reopened the chi points that Ty Lee closed, and with it, his full powers had returned. Now all he had to do was break the chains and make a run for it.

June, who had tagged along just to see the chaos, shook her head in disappointment. She could already predict how this would turn out. The mercenary could have warned them that Naruto, whom she could see using his water bending to cut the chains, was escaping. But then again, if he escapes, they would hire her again to capture him, so more money for her.

Naruto had freed himself from the chains and was stealthily escaping when he heard a pained scream. He turned to see Yue with half her beautiful face burned by Azula, who was impaled in the stomach by an icicle.

All over the place Naruto could see the fighting women were beating the shit out of the other, Suki was passed out with blood coming out her nose and mouth showing that she has some internal damage from Ty Lee's attacks.

Ty Lee and Mai weren't doing too well themselves; they were covered in cuts made by the Kyoshi warriors, some of which looked very deep.

Toph had been taken out of commission by Yue, who was annoyed by the shorter girl's attacks. She figured out how the blind girl saw using vibrations and simply used her water bending to suffocate the earth bender until she fainted.

The scene of the women battling each other like mortal enemies just for him made Naruto feel guilty. He didn't mean for all this to happen. If he left now, some of the women might die, and others would be scared for life.

Deep down Naruto knew the reason he was running away from taking responsibility for the women and children he fathered is fear, he had failed to protect Hinata and be a good father to his children in his life as a ninja, he was afraid he would do the same here.

Now the situation was more complicated with him having a lot more children and women, how could he possibly be anything but a failure now?

Naruto didn't want his children to grow up motherless or with a bitter, spiteful mother, so he turned around and whistled to get everyone's attention.

The injured women who were still conscious turned to look and were shocked to see him escape. They were about to attack the blonde, but suddenly, they all became paralyzed on the spot.

Naruto had a somewhat remorseful look on his face as he took in just what his irresponsible actions led to, most of his lovers were badly injured and some might die if he doesn't heal them soon.

"Look, I'm not sorry or anything for getting you all pregnant, or even leaving, but I won't let you all kill each other because of me," Naruto declared as he looked at the faces of the various women he knocked up.

Naruto had used his blood bending to freeze all the fighting women on the spot so that he could heal the badly injured females, and he even froze June in case she tried to attack him.

"I decided to stop running and take responsibility like you all want me to, but it will be under my terms," Naruto said with a determined look on his face. "But first things first, let's heal you all up."

The Uzumaki healed all the women until they were all back to full health, even healing Yue's face and any other injuries they had from the battle.

"Now that's better," Naruto stated, wiping some sweat off his forehead. "Now, what do I do with all of you?"

Naruto, with a smirk, cut his palm and used his blood bending to create thirteen blood clones. It was his most powerful form of bending, created to compensate for losing the ability to use shadow clone, although he couldn't create many of them.

Lemon Scene Ahead

Each of the thirteen clones was naked, his erect cock pointing at the crowd of women who looked back with shock and barely concealed lust.

"I think it is high time I show you all who is in charge of this relationship and take responsibility at the same time," Naruto stated, and he and his clones stalked over to the frozen women.

Katara and Original

Aang and the rest of the men found that they too could not move and were forced to watch Naruto take his clothes off and take Katara over to the side while his clones did the same to some of the other women.

"Ah ah fuck you so deep in me," Katara moaned with a lewd look on her sweat-covered face, her legs wide open as she lay on her back, Naruto was on top of her, thrusting his 13-inch cock into her pregnant pussy without pause.

"Yeah, take this dick bitch," Naruto said, enjoying Katara's tight wet pussy, "here it comes."

Naruto let out a loud grunt as he came into Katara, who groaned at the sensation of being filled with the blonde seed once more.

All the while, Aang and Sokka watched in horror and with a confused expression as Katara was taken over and over orgasming all over the blonde bastard's crotch to the point a puddle formed under them.

Katara could only moan out loud as Naruto spread her open wide right in front of her brother and Aang, then proceeded to fill her full of the shaft she became intimately acquainted with back in the Southern water tribe.

The female water bender felt embarrassed that her brother and a kid she viewed as a little brother were seeing the most shameful side of her, but she couldn't help but behave like a bitch in heat after her slit was filled to the brink.

Azula, Mai and Ty, Lee and Three Clone

Three clones were having their fun with the fire nation trio. Each woman was being fucked in different positions next to the other.

Azula was taken into a mating press position, with the clone ramming his hard cock into her soaking wet cunt.

Ty Lee was fucking standing up, doing a perfect split. She used a nearby wall to keep herself upright. The clone had one of her legs on his shoulder, the other on the ground.

Mai was getting fucked down in a doggie style position with her phat ass being slapped nonstop. Each woman had a fuck stupid look on their faces.

"Where is all that bratty attitude now, princess?" the clone moaned. Azula tried to glare at him, but the clone laughed at her and leaned forward, biting her milk-filled breast.

"You bastard," Azula groaned as he played with her nipples, sucking and pinching them until milk flowed out.

Yue and Clone

Yue were bouncing up and down on a clone's rod, trying to get as much of his shaft into her snug pussy, but only managed to take half.

"Did you get bigger since the last time we did this?" the princess asked, all her anger forgotten as soon as his slit was penetrated. The only thing on her mind was the sensation between her legs.

"Hehehe, maybe I am a growing boy after all," Naruto joked, his hands on Yue's ass thrusting up every time she slammed his hips down.

SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP

"Mmmmmm," Yue moaned in pure bliss as his pussy was pounded from below by the blonde Uzumaki, her tits started to leak milk every time she orgasmed.

Suki, Kyoshi warriors, and Four Clones

"Ah ah let me go you fucking bastard," Suki shouted. She was in a face-down ass up position, her hands were pinned behind her back, and her defenseless holes were being used for the blonde Uzumaki's clone pleasure.

"Stop pretending you don't want this slut," Naruto exclaimed, then proceeded to thrust hard into Suki's pussy, making her moan loudly. "If you really wanted me to stop, you wouldn't be shaking your hips like the horny little warrior slut you are."

Suki didn't reply, but the fact that her ass was grinding against the blonde's hip, even when he stopped moving, showed what she really wanted: not for him to stop, but a good hard fuck.

All around Suki were the seven Kyoshi warriors, naked and being pleased by three clones. One had a tall Kyoshi in a doggie style position, her head buried in the crotch of a chubby Kyoshi warrior.

Another clone had one Kyoshi warrior lie on her back and had another Kyoshi warrior lie on top of her while he thrust his shaft into each of their pussies over and over.

The last clone had one Kyoshi warrior sitting on his face while the other bounced on his lap, taking his cock deep into her pussy.

Song, Sing, and Two Clones.

Song and Sing were both being taken doggie style, with the blonde clones using their hand to thrust hard into the mother-daughter duo.

"That's it take my shaft down you slut little pussy," the clone fucking Song said as he increased the speed and force of his thrusts.

"Ah ah ah," Song could only moan mindlessly as his cunt was being used by the clone as if it were his own.

"When we were in Ba Sing Sa, you two were always fighting, I think it's time you two kissed and made up," the other clones said with a perverted smile as he and his fellow clone pressed the mother and daughter's faces together, making them kiss.

The mother-daughter pair surprised the clones, deepening the kiss into a full make-out session.

"Well, that's so hot," the first clone stated, and the clone with Sing nodded. Their shafts became hard as diamonds from the sight.

Both clones thrust hard and fast into the women until they felt a jet of wet liquid shoot out of both women's slits, their tight pussies clenching their rods and forcing them to cum deep inside their wombs.

Toph, Poppy and Two Clones

"You really are annoying, blondie," Toph said through clenched teeth, as Naruto had her in his hands, off the ground, bouncing her on his cock, facing him.

Toph was annoyed by this because she knew that Naruto knew that if she wasn't on solid ground, she couldn't see'. He enjoyed having her helpless when he fucked her, although she secretly enjoyed that feeling too.

Toph looked at her mother Poppy. She couldn't see her, per se, but she could hear her screams of ecstasy and the scent of her wet pussy, which painted a vivid image in the young earth bender's head.

The image was of a slut getting her meaty ass pounded. She knew that the blonde had her mother in a doggie style position so he could manhandle her supple ass cheeks.

Lao, still frozen, looked on in defeat as he watched his wife and child receive the fucking of a lifetime. With the way they were going at it, the man was sure another baby would soon be born to his daughter and his wife.

June and Original

Naruto, the original one, after he was done with Katara, who was passed out with a fuck stupid look on her face in a face down ass up position in front of her brother and Aang, with her slit leak their combined fluids.

Naruto stripped the mercenary down, and she didn't make a sound; she just looked at him until his shaft was in front of her bald slit.

"My pussy isn't free like those bitches. If you want to fuck me, you have to pay me for it," June said, staring right into Naruto's eyes.

"Fine, how much?" Naruto asked, but his cock was raaging so he decided to just fuck the bitch and he would find out the fee later. "Never mind, let's just do this. I will pay you later."

June just smirked and nodded her head. She opened her legs wider to let the blonde have better access to her slit.

"Mmmmm," June moaned, Naruto's cock halfway into her cunt.

"Damn, you feel so tight and wet," Naruto stated with a smile. "I love the feel of a new pussy around my cock."

June was tempted to laugh at the blonde calling her pussy new, while she was not a whore, she was not a saint either. Her pussy was not new by any means; hell, she was not even that tight, but Naruto's cock was just so big it made her seem tight.

"Less talk and more fucking," June said in a bored tone. She had been on a dry spell, mostly because she was surrounded by smelly stupid men, but now she could get some stress relief.

Fast Forward

Years passed by in the blink of an eye, Naruto, in the Fire Nation's royal palace, looked around his bedroom at the various women lying on his bed.

After fucking all the women he knocked up years ago, he had put his foot down with all of them. He had agreed to take responsibility for all his children and the mothers too.

Naruto's first stop was the Fire Nation. He had met the then Fire Lord Ozai, who was not too thrilled to meet him, the man who knocked up his precious weapon, Azula.

Long story short, Ozai tried to attack him, but he suddenly had a fatal heart attack, leaving Azula as the new fire lord.

Naruto was named her official consort, which caused an uproar among some of the most racist Fire Nation nobles, but they were quickly silenced.

Naruto's next stop was the Northern Water Tribe, where he planned to both marry Yue and deliver a peace agreement to Yue's father.

This was how things worked out. Naruto went to different nations and made peace on behalf of Azula while also marrying his children's mothers.

"Who would have thought that the nation would unite because of my bad habits," Naruto said to himself with a laugh.

All his women were here, and his children were also in the royal palace. They were celebrating the anniversary of him uniting the four great nations, along with some smaller ones.

"I guess it wasn't so bad getting tied down," Naruto stated as he watched his lovers sleep, some of whom were pregnant like Azula and Yue, who were competing to see who could have more of his children.
