Where are the askers?

Jayfeather MAP call rules + script (kinda)

Hello everyone! I'm hosting another MAP! It's just something short. Please read through this document carefully so you know what you need for this MAP! 🙂

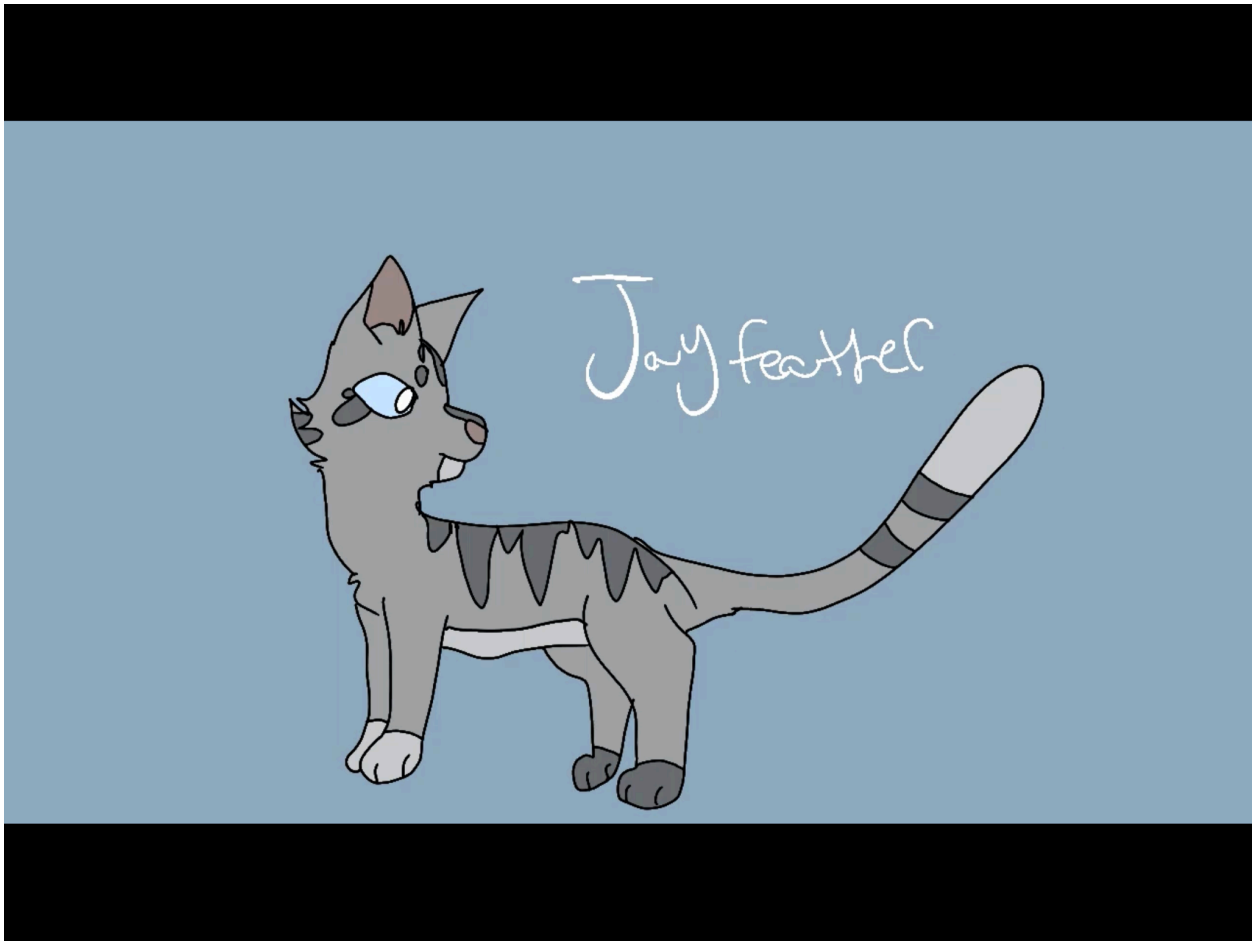

Code word (just to make sure you read this): Jayfeather didn't ask.

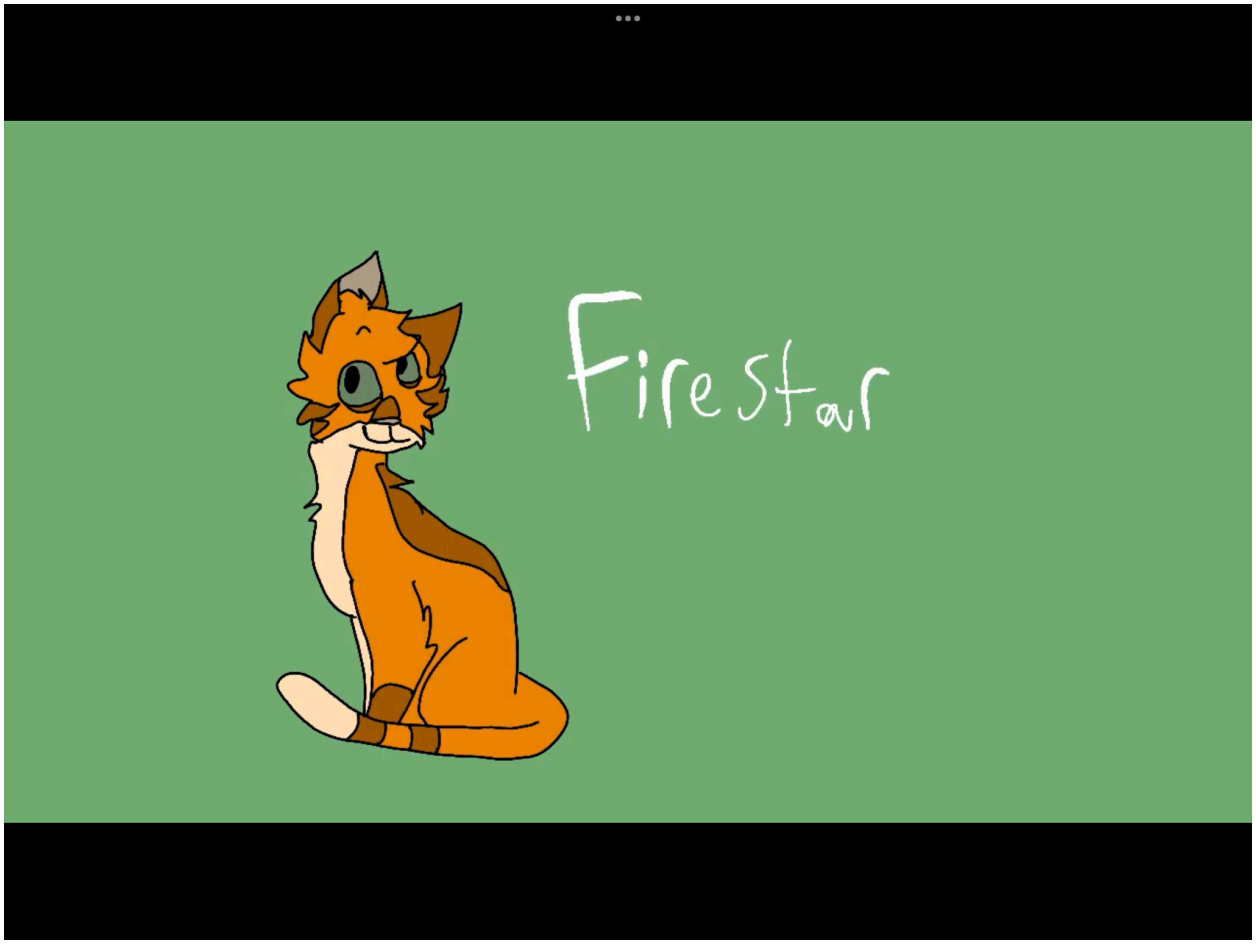

-RULES!-

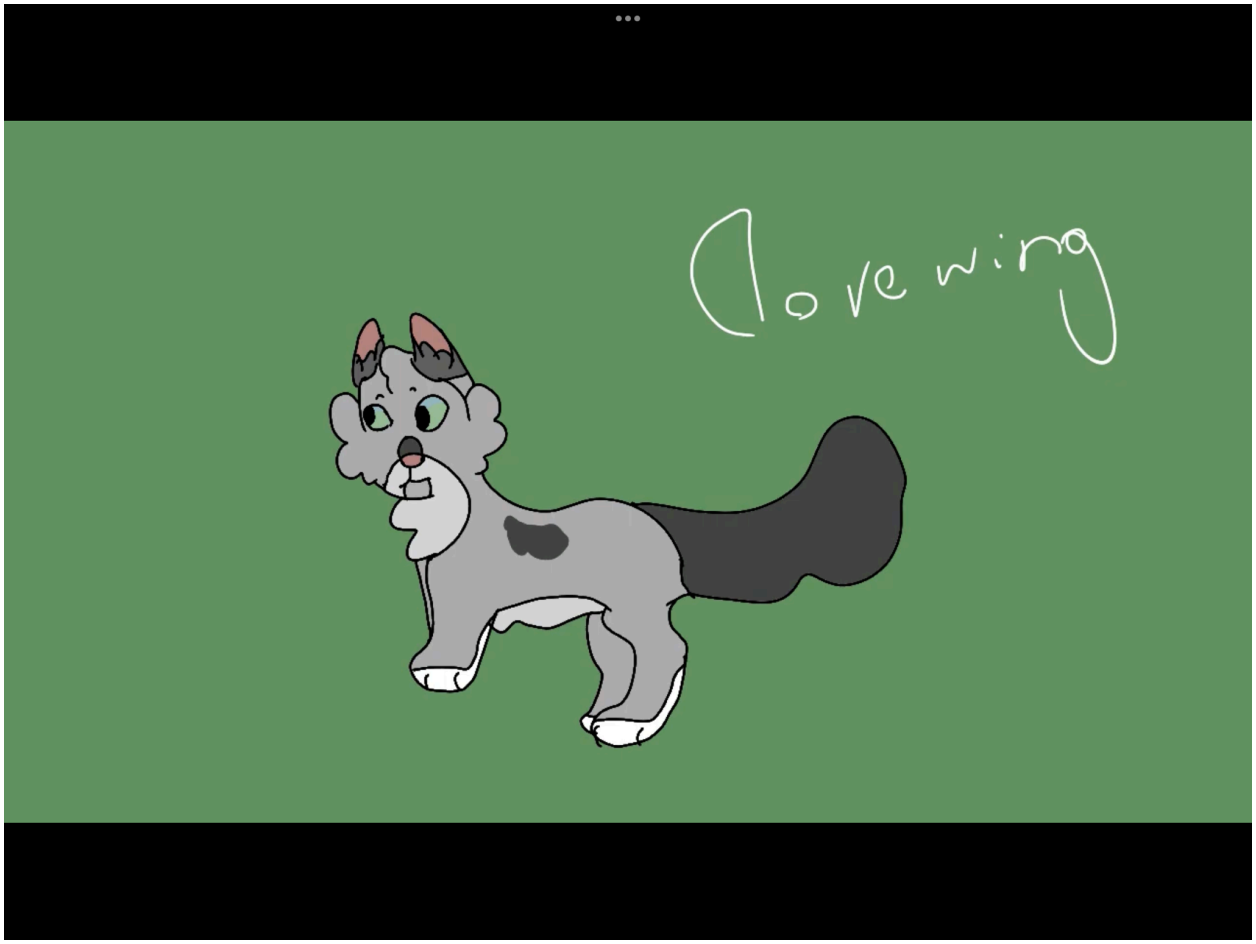

•No tracing
•No stealing art
•No gacha
•No paper
•Please have some animation/art knowledge.
•No attacking others for their parts
•Don't get salty if you don't get picked to join, it's NOT first come first serve
•Please have animation examples on your channel
•Deadline is December 20'th
•Okay, this is not a Christmas MAP. But add some snow in the background if you can! It'd look cool lol
•Please have read at least "The sight" of Warrior Cats, if you have not read past series 3 I'd advise you not to join. (You still can though.)

BG: ThunderClan camp, by the lake where the stick usually is, StarClan, or at the Moon pool.
MAP idea: Oh no! Jayfeather is being a grump, once again! You can make your parts however you want, BUT it must have Jayfeather and another cat! (Hollyleaf, Lionblaze, Breezepelt, ETC)
