

SIDE #4: Lester + Lucy

*LUCY enters with a couple of bags
She starts placing things around the room*

LUCY

Oh and then I was thinking we could spray...

LESTER

Spray?

LUCY

No-not spray- mist--
Oh where did it go?

LESTER

What?

LUCY

Pulling out a spray bottle of essential oils

Here it is.

LESTER

What in the world?

LUCY

I got a lavender mist from my colleague.

LESTER

What in god's name do you think some smelly spray is going to do?

LUCY

I don't know. Like cleanse the air?

(gestures vaguely)

And like soothe...

LESTER

It's just going to give me a headache.

LUCY

You don't think it's even worth a try?

LESTER

No, I don't think spritzing the air is going to help anybody.

LUCY

Sorry I'm trying something. It's not like you're--

LESTER

What would you have me do? Kill the woman?

LUCY

No!

LESTER

Well then.

LUCY

So you're not going to try anything? You just give up?

LESTER

What is there to give up on? She's dying! We are just waiting for her to die! SO just sit the fuck down and knit with me.

*LUCY stands in silence
Then she sits next to LESTER*

LUCY

I'm just trying to help her pass.

LESTER

She'll go in her own time.

LUCY

How can you be so sure?

LESTER

Because I have faith.
