Titles Should be Simple, Concise and Informative and No More Than 15 Words (Written in Constantia 11 Font in Bold)

Author[1)], Author[2)], etc.
[Font Constantia 11 in Bold, Names May Not Be Abbreviated and Without Academic Degrees]
[1]College (Author's affiliation 1), [2]College (Author's affiliation 2)
e-mail: authorkorespondensi@abc.ac.id

Abstract [Constantia, Italic, font 11 Bold]

Abstract consists of 150 words without pictures, tables, and citations of references. [Constantia 11 font, single space and italics]. Abstract is written in English and contains: Research purposes, State the objectives that will be discussed in this research. Method/Approach, mention the methods and procedures in this research. Conclusion, a brief statement about the results of the description analysis and discussion of the research results

Keywords: 3-5 words or phrases that are important, specific, and reflect the concept contained in the article, each word or phrase separated by a comma [Single spaced 11 Constantia font, and italics]

INTRODUCTION [Constantia 11 bold]
The introduction includes background on the issue or problem as well as the urgency and rationalization of the research. The research objectives and the urgency of the research are presented in this section. This section also contains a literature review that is used to support the research concept. The literature review is not limited to theory, but also empirical evidence. Research hypotheses (if any) must be built from theoretical concepts and supported by empirical studies (previous research). [Constantia, 11, normal, 1500 words max].

METHOD [Constantia 11 bold]
The method describes the type of research selected, the research model, activity design, scope or object, population and sample, place, operational definitions of research variables, main materials and instruments, data collection techniques, and techniques of analysis. [Constantia, 11, normal, 600 words max].

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION [Constantia 11 bold]
Results [Constantia 11 bold]
This section presents the research results in accordance with the formulation of the problem. Research results can be supplemented with tables, graphs (pictures), and/or charts. [Constantia, 11, normal, 1500 words max].

Discussion [Constantia 11 bold]
The discussion section describes the results of data processinvg, interprets the findings logically, relates them to relevant reference sources. The discussion section must contain the benefits of the research results and must not repeat the research results section [Constantia, 11, normal, maximum 1500 words].

CONCLUSION [Constantia 11 bold]
The conclusion contains a brief summary of the results of the research and discussion. After the conclusion, it can be given advice containing technical recommendations related to research results that are applicable or academic in nature, or have implications for educational policy. The limitations of the study are listed in this section. It must not contain figures, tables, and equations or tables of reference citations and citations. [Constantia, 11, normal, up to 900 words].

THANK-YOU NOTE (OPTIONAL)

Addressed to parties who have contributed to the research that has been carried out, for example, providers of funding sources, translators, proofreaders and others. Writing in paragraph form without numbering.

REFERENCES [Constantia 11 bold]

References consist of at least 25 sources in the last 10 years of publication (except historical material as classic sources). References must contain 80% of the main sources, namely reputable scientific journal articles. Sources taken from the internet must be from trusted sources, not allowed to take references from blogs, Word Press, and Wikipedia. It is highly recommended to use the Mendeley reference app. Writing the bibliography refers to the APA Style 7th format. [Constantia, 11, normal].

Note:

The total number of articles, excluding the Bibliography, is between 4000-6000 words, with right, left, top and bottom margins of 3 cm each and with a space of 1. Link Font Constantia can be downloaded at (https://tinyurl.com/fontjurnal)