

CALIFORNIA WILDFIRE RELIEF PROGRAM

Direction to Base: Paradise, California

Updated on August 31st, 2021

Our California Wildfire Relief program is located in Paradise, California. Paradise is a small town located in the foothills of the Sierra Nevadas. It is about a 25-minute drive from Chico, and 1 hour and 30 minutes from Sacramento.

Our base address is 5974 Pentz Road, Paradise, CA

Directions from Sacramento International Airport can be found here.

We welcome new arrivals on Sundays only between 8 am and 8 pm. The team provides a shuttle pick up from Sacramento International Airport. Please email the Volunteer Relations Coordinator Agbor at 678-600-5559 or agbor.e@allhandsandhearts.org your flight details and to schedule a pickup.

We recommend you fly into Sacramento International Airport (SMF) one hour and a thirty-minute drive from our base.

TRAVEL TO OUR PARADISE BASE

You have two options to get to the base; see instructions and pictures(to come)below.

OPTION ONE: Flight / Taxi, Lyft, or Uber

1. Flight to Sacramento International Airport (SMF)

The Sacramento International Airport 6900 Airport Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95837 is located in Sacramento, California. American Airlines, Delta, Southwest, Air Canada, Alaska, Spirit, Frontier, JetBlue, Hawaiian, United, and a few other airlines service the airport.

2. Taxi, Lyft or Uber from Sacramento International Airport (SMF) to base

The average cost one way is between $170-$250 depending on the time of day and is a one hour and thirty minute drive from our base.

3. Shuttle pick up from the airport to base

The team provides a shuttle pick up from Sacramento International Airport. Please email the Volunteer Relations Coordinator Agbor at 678-600-5559 or agbor.e@allhandsandhearts.org your flight details and to schedule a pickup.

OPTION TWO: Driving

Driving

You are more than welcome to drive your own vehicle to base. There are gas stations along the way (and close to our base) so you can fill up as needed. Volunteers who drive to the base will not be expected to drive to the worksite, but carpooling on various occasions is appreciated. Please let our Volunteer Relations Coordinator Agbor at 678-600-5559 or agbor.e@allhandsandhearts.org know ahead of time if you are planning on driving to base.

IF SOMETHING GOES WRONG

Take a deep breath. It's not unusual for something to go wrong. That's part of the fun, right? Patience and a smile go a long way in a stressful situation. If you need assistance, reach to the Volunteer Relations Coordinator, Agbor at 678-600-5559 or agbor.e@allhandsandhearts.org.
