Creative Writing

The purpose of creative writing is so students can come together to explore and improve their writing through fun and engaging activities

We meet once a month during acaptep or after school

Anyone can join!

For more information, contact:

Genevieve Sefcik room El07