Prague Fringe - 21 years of English-language theatre in the Czech Capital

Prague's very own slice of Edinburgh is back this Autumn!

From Monday 26th September to Saturday 1st October, audiences can enjoy six days of international, multi award-winning, theatre in English, presented by 28 theatre companies from all over the world.

Five unique and atmospheric venues in Malá Strana will be full of high-quality theatre (and more than a smattering of comedy), with tickets cheap enough that you can see more than one show per evening.

Some Prague Fringe favourites returning this year include multi award-winning writer and performer Henry Naylor, straight from a sell-out, highly acclaimed run at Edinburgh Fringe, with his new show 'Afghanistan is Not Funny', a true-story based on his research trip to war-torn Afghanistan in 2002. Also returning is Emily Carding with her new production 'Quintessence' - a sci-fi take on Shakespeare. You can also catch Brazilian card magician El Diablo of the Cards who returns with his mind-bending card trickery! Families can enjoy Jon & Ollie (two thirds of The Latebloomers who took the fringe by storm with their show Scotland! in 2018) with their brand-new show 'Strictly Come Barking'. And Fringe favourite Pip Utton is back after his sell-out run at our 2021 Autumn Fringe (Playing Maggie and Churchill) with two more one-man shows 'Hitchcock' and 'Bacon'.

There is also stand-up comedy from Spain, Finland and England, music from Scotland, the USA and the Czech Republic, and theatre from all over the world from Macau to Ukraine, to Northern Ireland, and so much more!

And remember, the Fringe is only 6 days long this year, from Monday 26th September - Saturday 1st October, some shows are only performing for 2 or 3 nights, and our venues are small (some only have 20-30 seats) - so get your tickets booked now - we expect to sell out!

Tickets are all priced at 220 Kč in advance (200 Kč for students and seniors aged 70+), or 250 Kč on the door (no concessions). Full ticket and booking info is here.

Check out our special Fringe Pass which gives you almost 10% discount on advance tickets - and you'll only pay one GoOut ticket agent service fee instead of five. Full details here.

For anyone looking for ways to support the festival and help it to continue on into 2023 and beyond, take a look at the Friends of the Fringe options which give you amazing benefits including free tickets, priority access to the venues to get the best seats in the house and discounts with Fringe-friendly eateries in the Fringe zone.
