

Victor Taylor

Victor XMAN Taylor is an artist-musician, multi platinum music producer and bass guitar designer. Victor, also known as XMAN, is a true visionary driven by a passion to bring new concepts to life. Using music as his vessel, this creative powerhouse has been behind some of the world's most respected artists such as ICE CUBE, MACK 10, PRINCE, KRS ONE and LENCHMOB, as well as award winning film directors such as F. GARY GRAY, ROBERT TOWNSEND, STEVEN E. De SOUZA, MICHAEL SHULTZ and ZARIAN HADLEY to name a few.

Victor's work also touches the rock genre as Guns & Roses founder and bassist Duff Mc Kagan put Victor's rock band together on a nationally televised reality show. This is where Victor got a chance to Learn first hand from legendary reality show producer Mark Burnett (Survivor, Shark Tank, The Apprentice). Through Mark's inspiration Victor created and is concurrently developing His debut reality show/competition entitled "Back Seat Driver".

In the spoken word genre XMAN's works are known around the world as co-founder and producer of the infamous LEIMERT PARK POETS. The groundbreaking LP entitled "Spreading Love N Spoken Word" became a historic spoken word lp that would become the blueprint for many poets in the spoken word world. In 2022 The Pan African Film Festival honored XMAN and the Leimert Park Poets with the Legends Of Poetry Award for their works in the spoken word and poetry communities.
