

SFW example - Tessa courting

Orange hues scanned the dance floor at Sin City, a strand of deep brown and honey colored hair falling out of place as Tessa turned her head to ensure a proper view of all of the patrons. Her lip curled a bit as she caught Dia shooting her a glare, though she simply rolled her eyes and brought her wine glass to her full lips, taking a sip.

Her hips swayed slightly to the beat of the music as she closed her eyes and let the sounds of the club fill her ears. The music was the loudest, vibrating the floor with the bass, and then there was the laughter, the sound of poker chips hitting tables, cards being flipped. The alcohol trickling into glasses, changing it's tune the more it was poured, the shake shake shake of the mixer. Her ears twitched, and she thanked the twelve she was blessed with such good hearing. One of her favorite things was listening to the music that life created.

Upon opening her eyes, she noticed a particularly delicious looking viera all alone by the side of the dance floor. Her lids lowered, tongue darting out to wet her lips as she honed in on her prey-- er.. patron. Her heels clicking on the floor rang in her ears. She took another drink of her wine, letting her fingertips brush over the male's forearm to alert him to her presence.

"Hi there, darlin' is there somethin' I might be able to do ya for this evenin'?" Her southern drawl was thick and sweet as honey, sure to make nearly anyone stammer at least a little bit.

"That's it sugar, just like that~ fuck..." Tess hissed out in pleasure as she tugged at the male's ears, pulling him closer between her legs. She had taken position on the desk in the private room, telling her client to get on his knees and be a good boy. Watching the eager obedience sent shivers through her spine. Now, she'd been making good use of his tongue for some time, and she was nearly to the peak of her pleasure.

"A-ah.. fuck..fuck... hmnn yes~!" her chest heaved, the grip she had on the other's ears tightening. The knot that formed in her lower stomach was about to snap, and her entire body tensed. As she came undone, her eyes rolled back, legs locking around her sub's head as she rutted up to his face with no regard to his breathing.

Once her body loosened again, she released her hold on the other, pushing him back from her pussy gently and getting a good look at how drenched his face was with her arousal. A smirk tugged at her lips as she took in the panting, disheveled mess before her. He was gonna be fun to tire out~

Submissive ERP example

The Viera's wrists and ankles flexed against her restraints, her body twisting and turning in a futile attempt to get free. "Heh, you can't tame me that easy, sweetheart, but it's a good try~" Tessa winked with a laugh, loving the thrill of being a brat. If someone was planning to dominate her, they were surely gonna have to work for it, hard.

She took her lower lip between her teeth, a soft hiss-like moan of pain and pleasure followed the sharp slap to her ass that echoed through the room. She writhed a bit on the bed, huffing slightly, annoyed with herself that she had let a noise slip so soon.

The bed dipped down as her bed partner climbed on it, his legs moving to either side of her head. The low, devious chuckle that left the other sent a shiver through her body. "H-hhhh.." she let out a barely audible whine as she felt the soft fabric covering her eyes. Her head lifted a bit to allow for easier access as the blindfold was secured tightly.

Her tongue darted out playfully when she felt the tip of his hard cock pressing to her lips, earning her a growl and a slap to the cheek as the cock was forced into her mouth. A muffled moan escaped her as the other began to use her throat as his own personal toy.
