

Eleonora-Noga ALBERTI

Lyric mezzosoprano and musicologist. She holds a PhD in Music, a Bachelor's degree, and a Higher Professor of Music from the Pontificia Universidad Católica Argentina. She was a researcher at the Carlos Vega National Institute of Musicology and a visiting member of the Carlos Vega Institute of Musicological Research, UCA. Co-founder and head of the Musicology Department at CIDICSeF (Center for Research and Dissemination of Sephardic Culture). She is a recipient of the 14th Call for Research Fellowships in Spain for Foreign Hispanists, 2000. Advisor and Evaluator for the Revista Musicológica (Musicological Journal) of the Symphony Orchestra of the Congress of Paraguay. Professor at the Instituto Superior de Arte del Teatro Colón. She has received the "Raíces Nacional" (National Raising Award) for her career, 2014. Books, articles, congresses, seminars, symposia, and university lectures.

She has given solo recitals in Argentina, in almost of Latin America, the United States, Europe, and Israel.