A Daughters of Darkness RP Production

In

A Legendary Tag Team Is Back.!!

We open up to Lexie and Thea in the living room of their house. Where they are speaking about returning to wrestling. They are smiling at each other. They giggle and a conversation has begun.

Thea Maddox

I know our mom has been missing and dad has been quite upset. But we have to get him to move on. It has been a couple long years since mom has been missing and such.

Lexie Maddox

I couldn't agree more with you. I mean there is that one girl In Pariah I think. I forgot her name but I am Sure Dad will remember. After all, the girl has idolized dad for a long time. It makes me wonder if she has the hots for him.

Thea Maddox

Yeah that I agree with you. But I am still sad and miss mom as well

Lexie Maddox

I do too.
Thea Maddox
'Snaps her fingers and gets an idea" I have an idea!

Lexie Maddox
What is your idea?

Thea Maddox
Well what if we live for our mom by returning to wrestling.

Lexie Maddox
That is a great idea! But the question remains who's gonna take us now that we have been gone from wrestling these past two years?

Thea Maddox
I am not sure have you got any ideas Lexie??

Lexie Maddox
I am still thinking.

Thea Maddox
As Am I.

Suddenly Lexie's I-Phone rings and it reads "Anonymous Lexie picks up the phone as Thea listens in.

Lexie Maddox
Hello?

???
Hello have I reached Lexie and Thea Maddox

Lexie Maddox
Lexie: But my sister is close by. Who are you anyways?

???
This is Kaleb Steele at AWS Assault boy have I got an opportunity for the both of you are you interested?

Lexie Maddox
My sister and I were just talking about returning to the ring. We may be interested but what are your terms?

Kaleb Steele

Yes that sounds great, we are in need of tag teams here in AWS and I could book you right away against Samoan Tao and The Samoan Dynasty in a tag team triple threat. What say you?

Lexie Maddox

That sounds great. We accept.

Kaleb Steele

This match is in a couple days. To prepare, Sorry for the short notice match Well anyways see ya at Assault.

Lexie Maddox

Thank You for The Opportunity.

Lexie hangs up. Both try to contain their giggles and screaming. They do so. Screams and giggles and jumps up and down. Before Thea speaks and things simmer down.

Thea Maddox

We should prepare for this match. Why don't we go down to the basement work of our promo rust. We are always in shape and we work out daily.

Lexie Maddox

That is true. You lead the way then!!!

Thea and Lexie go down to their basement. Where we see a ring plus workout equipment as far as the eyes can see. Thea and Lexie were wearing matching pink and purple wife beaters followed by pink boy shorts. Thea turns music on which Daughters of Darkness by Halestorm blasts around their basement makeshift training area. Thea and Lexie go into the ring and grab two mics in the process. Thea then begins to speak on the mic.

Daughters of Darkness Theme

Thea Maddox

So it would seem as we were thinking about coming back to wrestling. Kaleb Steele calls us and gives us an opportunity. One team is basically jobbers and a rip off called Samoan Dynasty. Then we got disciplined military types in Samoan Tao. What a joke we have here to Samoan Teams ripping each other off, That is laughable at best.

Lexie Maddox

Exactly well said Thea. It is interesting that Samoan Dynasty has not said anything about this match after all they were facing Samoan Tao anyways. Why not bring a feminine touch to this match? I mean you can definitely use it. Who wants a match with a bunch of sausages in it and masculinity.

Thea Maddox

The Samoan Tao brought up something a little interesting. They claim we are just into beauty pageants and wrestling school. How moronic can you get? Mom has been missing for ages and father basically is still trying to search for her and has become sort of a whiny bitch. Basically me and my sister have been finding ways to cope while maintaining amazing bods.

Lexie Maddox

Yes exactly. We aren't just school girls we have been busy getting Masters Degrees we each got a different degree mine is in physical training and Thea's is in Sports Journalism. But we are just two barbie dolls as Samoan Tao says. We don't think about wrestling school. We don't think about beauty pageants. We did that when we were young. We are your typical pretty girls in every sense outside the ring, yes. Inside we are a whole different breed.

Lexie Maddox

But alas your PTSD cannot save you from the darkness that brews within us. You also seem to forget That we were once tag champions before and it will not stop here. We have been watching AWS for a while. We are intrigued by this lack of tag teams. What more can you want? Two former tag team champs coming back to the ring to shut up the in ring critics that is the AWS roster.

Thea Maddox

And it is even more lame that you say you are gonna kick our ass because you are going to kick sound familiar?

Lexie Maddox

It sounds like a bunch of insecure men eradicating their masculinity and sexist remarks because they are scared that they are going to lose to two women.

Thea Maddox

We will beat both your asses because you are ill informed about us. We are ready and willing to go the distance to defeat both teams. We are not giving them props. But who do you think are the Pinnacle Tag Teams Champs by The name of Stone Enterprises. Oh and let me enlighten you Samoan Tao they are female not male. You simply think you are a god's gift to wrestling. Just because you are in the military.

Lexie Maddox

It is time we come back and make an example of two sexist males and another bunch of ripoffs in the form Samoan Tao and Samoan Dynasty.

Thea Maddox

We are The Daughters of Darkness and we will prevail and be the saviors of this god awful tag team division.

Lexie Maddox

My sister is right we are coming hungry does not matter whether you are male or female we are coming for The Pinnacle Tag Titles Stone Enterprises be forewarned.

Thea Maddox

Re-Meet The Daughters of Darkness as we teach these two clowns of teams that we are more than just pretty faces. We are all your fears come to life in Darkness!

Thea and Lexie, just as Daughters of Darkness by Halstorm continues to play.

Lexie Maddox

AWS roster you have been warned in the calamity of darkness.

Lexie and Thea continue to dance to their theme as the cameras and music fade out.

End of Role-Play.
