

Photos From the Temple Ridge Trail - Saturday, February 1

New Promise Hikers completed a hike on the Temple Ridge Trail on Saturday, February 1. A few of the hikers did just the Temple Quarry portion of the hike and then returned back to the trailhead. Another group continued along the Temple Ridge trail, but then left the trail before reaching the Devil's Saddle to hike to New Promise Church. The last group completed the Temple Ridge Loop by crossing over the Devil's Saddle and then continuing back to the trailhead. Looks like everyone enjoyed the hike, on a day that initially was somewhat cool, but quickly became excellent.
