The Long Beach Bail Process Simplified

Many Long Beach residents find themselves unprepared when dealing with the bail system for the first time. At Angels Bail Bonds, we make the process transparent and straightforward:

Step 1: Initial Contact

Contact our bail hotline immediately after an arrest. Having the following information ready will expedite the process:

- Full name of the arrested person
- Location of detention (specific Long Beach facility)
- Booking number
- Nature of the charges
- Any relevant case details

Step 2: Quick Assessment

Our experienced Long Beach bail agents will quickly assess the situation and determine the appropriate bail bond amount. Factors that influence bail amounts include:

- Severity of charges
- Prior criminal history
- Community ties
- Employment status
- Flight risk assessment

Step 3: Flexible Payment Arrangements

Unlike other Long Beach bail bonds services, Angels Bail Bonds offers multiple payment solutions:

- Competitive premium rates
- Custom payment plans
- All major credit cards
- Cash and check options
- Bitcoin acceptance
- Collateral arrangements when necessary (property, vehicles, jewelry, etc.)

Step 4: Paperwork and Release

Our agents handle all the complex paperwork and coordination with Long Beach detention facilities. We work efficiently to secure the fastest possible release for your loved one.

Understanding Long Beach Detention Facilities

When someone is arrested in Long Beach, they're typically processed at the Long Beach City Jail before potential transfer to larger county facilities. The Long Beach City Jail is located at the Public Safety Building and operates separate facilities for men and women:

- Long Beach City Jail Address: 400 W. Broadway, Long Beach, CA 90802
- Phone: 562-570-7260
- Women's capacity: 70 inmates
- Men's capacity: 132 inmates

Visitation Information

- Video conference visitation at police headquarters
- One 15-minute visit allowed per day
- Specific visitation hours:
- Felony charges: 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. daily
- Misdemeanor charges: 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. daily
- Trustee: 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. daily

Long Beach Bail Bonds FAQ

Q: How much does a bail bond cost in Long Beach?

A: Typically, bail bond fees are set by California state regulations at 10% of the total bail amount. However, Angels Bail Bonds offers flexible payment plans and may provide discounts for qualified clients.

Q: How long does it take to be released from Long Beach City Jail?

A: Release times vary depending on facility processing times and case complexity. Angels Bail Bonds works to expedite releases, often securing freedom in as little as 2-6 hours after bond posting.

Q: Do I need collateral for a Long Beach bail bond?

A: Not always. Angels Bail Bonds offers no-collateral options for qualified clients. When collateral is required, we accept various forms of property including real estate, vehicles, jewelry, and other valuables.

Q: What happens if someone misses their court date after I've posted bail?

A: Missing court dates can result in bail forfeiture and additional charges. Angels Bail Bonds provides reminders and guidance to help ensure all court appearances are met as scheduled.
