

Group Planning Sheet

Student	Rhetorical Device	Activity	Audio	Video	Festival Connection
Curran	Alliteration		https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MaF6kMu3BZo&list=PL14DCFA6B8E624C99&index=15	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aKdV5FvXLuI	Early Americans began to use alliterations to stress the points of events in their poems, like in our poem the author repeats “if ever” to stress the fact that her love was real and everlasting
Corey	metaphor	Take the metaphors in the poem and analyze them to get what the author means	Video	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eFgRj-5d5Ac	Early American people used metaphors in the poems they would write.
Emily	Perspective	Worksheet with different individuals’ perspectives	song from 1600	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=etQJ1FUBoXk	People’s writings about experiences were in their perspectives and included their emotions and thoughts.
Morgan	Motifs	Annotate the poem, and figure out what motif is present within the text. Next choose a person from a 1600s, discuss who your person is, and write a rhyming couplet from your character perspective.	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zCQMlyXMRJE	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p4qME64SkxM&list=PLAeojEh3qyAxRZ34dYnNctQqYByDddWVR	An early and well known way to express oneself was through poetry.
Drew	Parallelism	Explain the significance of the way she writes and how a constant emotion is portrayed throughout	Pilgrim Track		There wasn't many ways to express love back then as there are now, so people the poem			turned more towards writing.

--	--	----------	--	--	------------------------------

Reading Check Questions

1. My love is such that _____ cannot quench...
 - a. Oceans
 - b. Lakes
 - c. Water
 - d. Rivers

2. What does the East hold?
 - a. Her family
 - b. Love
 - c. Water
 - d. Pancakes

3. What does the author believe will happen to her love once she dies?
 - a. It will go away.
 - b. It will stay with her.
 - c. She will love someone else.
 - d. She can no longer love anything.

4. When the author says, "I prize thy love more than whole Mines of gold," what does she mean by this?
 - a. She tries to explain how she used to work in the mines.
 - b. She begins to explain how she received a prize for her love.
 - c. She is trying to get the message across that nothing will break apart their love, not even greed.
 - d. She is explaining how she is extremely greedy and wants all the money.

5. Why does the author believe she obtained her loving relationship?
 - a. She prays.
 - b. Luck.
 - c. Her parents assigned the marriage.
 - d. She wished for it on her birthday.