SUBJECT : Reminder: VOTE! March 13th Special Election in Pennsylvania's 18th Congressional District

Dear –

VOTE NOW in the March 13th Special Election in Pennsylvania's 18th Congressional District

Voters in Greene, Washington, Allegheny and Westmoreland counties--show your resistance to Trump and the Republican agenda. Let's elect Democrat Conor Lamb to Congress and flip Rep. Tim Murphy's old seat to the Democrats!

Your vote can be the difference! All overseas voters in Pennsylvania's 18th Congressional District can vote in this Federal election. Turnout for Special Elections tend to be very low and just a few votes--such as yours--can be key. And what should be a Republican blowout is now a very close race. Every vote matters!

Requesting your ballot NOW will help ensure you receive a ballot for every election in 2018--including the General Election in November, the Primaries and any Special or Runoff Elections you are eligible to vote in.

Registered to Vote But Haven't Received Your Ballot Yet? Request Your 2018 Ballot!

Just go to www.votefromabroad.org to fill out the form. Follow the prompts, then Print and SIGN the form. EMAIL, FAX or MAIL your signed form to Pennsylvania right away. It must be RECEIVED in Pennsylvania by Monday, March 12th.

When you get your ballot OR if you have already received it, be sure to fill it out and MAIL it back right away! Your voted ballot must be POSTMARKED by Monday March 12th at 11:59pm and RECEIVED in Pennsylvania by Tuesday, March 20th at 5pm (Pennsylvania time).

Concerned You Won't Get Your Ballot In Time? VOTE now using the Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot (or FWAB). Fill it out, then MAIL it back right away--it must be POSTMARKED by Monday March 12th at 11:59pm and RECEIVED in Pennsylvania by Tuesday, March 20th at 5pm (Pennsylvania time).
