

New Writing Festival 2022 - Content Warnings

Tuesday 29th March

Betwixt:

- Reference to and depiction of abuse, emotional abuse and a toxic relationship
- Reference to the loss of a loved one

The Waiting Room:

- Themes of and discussion of abortion
- References to sex

When the Rain Hit London:

- Themes of depression, seasonal affective disorder
- Reference to suicidal thoughts
- Profanity
- Reference to restricting eating
- Reference to Russian invasion of Ukraine

Thursday 31st March

Goblin Garden:

- Themes of unspecified mental illness
- Reference to self harm by use of a cheese grater
- References to dementia and memory loss
- References to potential violence, through the use of knives and scissors, and the death of an animal
- Transphobia
- Depiction of people getting undressed
- Profanity

A Working Title:

- References to depression, anxiety and suicidal thoughts
- References to alcohol
- Profanity

Brilliant, F Brilliant:

- (all in the context of comedy:)
- Reference to anxiety
- Sex references
- Profanity
- Casual references to death, pandemic
- Reference to smoking

- Depiction of gagging/suggested emesis
- Reference to war

Saturday 2nd April

A Dash of Lavender:

- References to alcohol
- Nudity within artwork
- References to death
- References to the death of an animal
- Sexual references

A Climate Tragedy:

- Themes of climate change and threat to humanity
- Sexual references
- References to turbulent parental relationship
- Graphic reference to abortion

Secret Society (shhhh, it's a secret):

- (all in the context of comedy):
- References to and comedic depiction of physical violence, threat, kidnapping, terrorism, waterboarding
- References to illegal drugs, alcohol, substance abuse
- Profanity
- Sexual references
- Classism, misogyny, xenophobia, ageism
- Reference to depression
- Depiction of police

Betawurs:

- Sinister themes of a dystopian world, oppressive regimes
- References to a pandemic
- References to sex work
- Reference to depression