Instead of immediately clicking off and hitting the next button, she watches in shock. The porn is poorly cropped out of the video with a single frame of it being left in alongside Shelesh's reaction. In the third timestamp, a boy who appears to be around the 15-17 year old age range is talking with Shelesh about how he feels like there is an issue where a lot of people on Omegle are showing their penis. Shelesh then is coercing him into thinking she has a penis to trick him into saying that he wants to see if she has one or not. He clicks off when she gets up to reveal her vagina (which she never does) and then she jokes about getting a packer (a fake penis usually used for transgender men to feel gender affirmation) just to mess with people if they ask about if she has a penis. A backup of the video can be accessed here on the Internet Archive in case Shelesh deletes the video. As of October 24th, 2023, this video has been age restricted but has not been taken down from Shelesh's channel.
