

Look at the picture below. Form a small group and try to guess the language and the nationality of each country and write it down with your friends. For example, people from Turkey are Turkish and they speak Turkish. Turkey – Turkish - Turkish

* The word for the nationality and language are different. These languages came from other countries. Read the example sentences.

Examples

A. Jean is from France. He is French. His language is French.

B. A person from Japan speaks Japanese. His nationality is Japanese.

C. People from Mexico are Mexican. They speak Spanish.

 Write a sentence about your favorite thing from one of these countries.

Example sentence:

- I like the way German people work. They are very disciplined.

Your sentence:

-

 Click on the link your teacher has sent you.

<http://www.5minuteenglish.com/feb13.htm>

3) Look at the screen. Your teacher will open a country map. Number each country and write down each country, nationality and language they speak in an empty area. For example: Draw the number 1 on Turkey. Write down (1 – Turkey, Turkish, Turkish) on the empty space of your page.

