Let me tell you about the intake process. I will first ask you some questions. Then I will take your ID and get you a key tag. You can scan it the next time you come in. We are a walk-in clinic open six days a week. We don't take insurance, but this helps us keep costs low for you. Next you will need to fill out some paperwork. After that, you are ready for your adjustment. Audio 3 Patient: Sounds good, thanks.	Patient and Receptionist have a conversation

Continued from last scene	Audio 1 Receptionist: You are all set. Do you have any questions or concerns before your adjustment? Audio 1 Patient: What does an adjustment feel like? Audio 2 Receptionist: The adjustment is a very quick process that is over before you know it. The immediate feeling is often euphoric and relieving. It doesn't typically hurt, but may hurt a little if the area is inflamed, swollen or irritated. Audio 2 Patient: What areas will the chiropractor adjust?	Transition: Zoom to center
