

Notice for applicants

To make changes to this document, download it to your device.
You can also create an empty Word document on your computer and replicate the prompts and structure of this template there.

Multilingual Master in Linguistics and Literary Studies

Applicant's name: [First Name – Last Name]

Profile: [e.g., Linguistics]

Language(s): [e.g., English and French]

Motivation Letter

[The following questions are for guidance only. Applicants can feel free to include any necessary information.]

Introduction of your personal profile and academic background.

Your motivation to apply for the programme and the specific study profile.

Reasons why you are a good candidate for the Multilingual Master programme.

Explanation on how the programme fits into your future (professional or academic) plan.

Description of extra information or experiences (i.e., international experience, research experience).