Commissioner and Artist Rights:

- Commissioner Rights:
 - Commissioners are free to post any commissions done for them in a personal/public gallery as long as credit to the artist is given. Commissioners, however, cannot post any commission requested as 'private' in the form to any gallery and must not remove the artist's signature on the image for any reason.

- Commissioners are free to make avatars, banners, and graphic designs from the art they receive. However, the commissioner may not post art that has been edited extensively, edited by another person paid to do so, recolored, etc. without giving credit to the original artist.
- Commissioners may not pay another person to finish any sketches or lineart created by the artist for them without permission. If they or someone else finishes a sketch or lineart at no cost, no permission is needed as long as credit is given.
- Commissioners are free to make prints/copies of the image provided that they are for personal use only, and no profit is made.
- Commissioners are free to request that a commission that was done for them be kept private and not posted to my galleries, provided that the commissioner does not post said commission to a personal/public gallery as well.

- Artist Rights:

- I reserve the right to post any finished commissions I wish to my gallery unless explicitly requested by the commissioner not to do so via marked as 'private' in the form or through direct contact.
- I am not obligated to post any commissions I deem inappropriate for my gallery nor am I obligated to honor a request by the commissioner to post a commission I deem inappropriate for my gallery.
- Unless I explicitly have stated otherwise, I retain all copyright to my artwork, even if the characters contained in the image belong to the commissioner or a third-party. It is also in my right to post, distribute, copy, reproduce, etc. for promotion; This includes prints/etc. for conventions.
- I reserve the right to use any rejected poses/sketches/linearts for my own use. I will alter the pose/sketch/lineart so that the character(s)/subject matter(s) does not look like yours.

You can use the digital file of your commission however you want; print it on a mug, a shirt, or a sheet to be framed and put on a wall. Though It's not meant to be used to sell those goods, only personal use.

I don't use commissions to be printed and sold by myself, unless it happens to have one of my characters in it, then I only put that commission piece into my yearly art folders.

You can keep me from posting the commission in my galleries, I don't need any reason except that you'd prefer the picture to be private.

Big No's:

I won't receive forms from blank profiles or shit-posting accounts.

Link me your main account so I know you can be reliable and go through with the commission.

I won't work on a commission if you are dealing with me on behalf of somebody else.
