

Week Nineteen: "LOVE"

1. According to 1 Peter 1:22, how are we called to love one another? What does it mean to love earnestly from a pure heart?
2. How can we incorporate Lou Holtz's three rules (do the right thing, do your best, and show people you care) into our daily lives and interactions with others?
3. What does it mean to be purposeful in sharing our love for others? How can we demonstrate love through patience, presence, and promotion?
4. How can practicing humility help us see the best in others and love them, even if they may be difficult to love?
5. What does it mean to purify our souls through obedience to the truth for sincere brotherly love? How does this concept relate to our preparation for love?
6. In Romans 12:10, why are we encouraged to outdo one another in showing honor and love? How can we channel our competitive spirit towards expressing care and love for others?
7. How can we overcome obstacles such as reconciliation, renewal, or the choice to begin with respect in order to foster love in our relationships?
8. What does it mean to have unity of mind, sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind, as mentioned in 1 Peter 3:8? How can these qualities contribute to our preparation for love?
9. How can we actively share, show, and be love, following the example of our heavenly Father? What steps can we take to become vessels of love to others?
10. How can we challenge ourselves to outdo one another in our preparation for love? What practical actions and behaviors can we adopt to purposefully express care and love to those around us?
