

Croton FAQ

About Me

What's your name?

My real name is Sam, but you can call me Croton!! People also call me Crouton, like the salad topping.

How old are you?

26, and my Birthday is October 30th!!

How tall are you?

I'm 6'2" and a half ~~but I like to round to 6'3"~~

Where are you from?

Wisconsin, United States. Moved around the country, currently residing in Illinois

What's your favorite color?

Red, just like a tomato!!

How did you choose Croton as your name?

Croton was a name I made up when I was younger that I started using as my screen name, and eventually it then became my channel name!!

What's your favorite game?

Breath of the Wild, with a strong love for all the other 3D zelda games!! Other favorites include Mario Odyssey, The Pikmin series, Origami King, and some great indies like Undertale and Omori. Recent favorites: Expedition 33, The Outer Wilds, Shovel Knight

What was your first game?

Ocarina of Time!! I have a lot of memories of watching my brother and dad play it as a kid

What Legend of Zelda games have you played?

I played a lot of them, so the ones I haven't played are Oracle of Seasons, and any of the multiplayer ones such as Four Swords and Triforce Heroes. I also haven't completed Spirit Tracks and Oracle of Ages

How many hours do you have in BOTW/TOTK?

~2,500 in BotW, ~1000 in TotK

What's your favorite video/challenge run you made?

The Ancient ONLY run is generally considered my best/most popular, but I look fondly back on the BotW Maze Run - combining navigation, looting, and timeliness into an awesome challenge!

Tears of the Kingdom Frequently Asked:

What is my favorite...Sage Ability?

Tulin gusts streamline traversal greatly, while Yunobo canons are fun to use on any Zonai vehicle - it's a tie for me!!

(Sidon is easily my favorite character, cool fish)

Dungeon?

Fire Temple - amazing atmosphere with the depths that lead into it. I loved the minecart sections and how Yunnobo is utilized as a canon throughout!

Weapon?

Soldier Spear with a light dragon part makes for an awesome, fast paced healer staff!!

Dusk Claymore with a gleeok frost horn makes a flashy, freezy weapon that never loses charge

Giant Boomerang with Colgera Jaw moves so slow you can have it follow you around mid flight

Armor?

The Frostbite set is stunning!! Glide set for utility though (My other favorites are all BotW ones)

Song?

Colgera's theme is the objective best pick - but the game's main theme is also phenomenal!! I also love the ever-so-cathy Minecart Land theme

Town?

Hateno - its TotK changes address the nostalgia for the village that once was, with the need to change with the times. Perfectly in tune with one of the biggest gameplay themes

Breath of the Wild Frequently Asked:

What is my favorite...

Champion?

Urbosa is a total badass....but Revali is lovably pompous - it's a tie for me!

Divine Beast?

Naboris for its amazing setting, layout, and great (but frustrating) boss

Weapon?

Drillshaft, obviously besides the drillshaft??

Eightfold longblade, Windcleaver, Sword, blizzard rod, ancient bow + shield, duplex bow, falcon bow, mind's eye shield, and radiant shield (either they look cool or function uniquely, and in most cases both!)

Armor?

Phantom, Sheikah, and Royal Guard!! They all look awesome - phantom has attack up (best buff) sheikah has stealth (second best buff) and royal guard has its amazing stamina action reduction buff - perfect for travel! Also the voe set looks very cool, along with the knights armor dyed black, and the hylia set!

Song?

The Breath of the Wild main theme (can be heard fully in the game's trailer). My favorite character theme is Revali's or Kass's theme, favorite town themes are Rito, Korok, and Hateno — with honorable mentions being the naboris boarding segment and the molduga theme!

Town?

Hateno for its excellent use of spaciousness, gerudo for its compact tight-knit layout and culture

Channel Info

When is the next YouTube Video?

Release times vary greatly depending on the size of the project! I edit and record all videos and thumbnails myself, and I am not looking for any editors/help.

Where and when do you stream?

The weekly playthrough is currently streamed on Tuesdays at 6pm EST! Challenge runs are streamed on their own schedule, usually back to back days over a weekend. New Zelda releases also are streamed as they come out on their own schedule.

What will you be streaming?

Our main playthroughs are usually Tears of the Kingdom or Breath of the Wild focused! Older Zelda games we will mostly be streamed on the weekends as we feel like revisiting them

Where can I watch past streams?

My weekly TotK/BotW streams can be found in the playlist tab of my Youtube channel, but feel free to click here:

I made you something! Can you look at it?

You can @ me on twitter!! @CrotonZelda

Do you have a P.O. box?

Not currently, and I have no plans to in the near future.

Do you have merch?

Our merch run has ended, but you can purchase any products still available here!

How can I become a member of your channel on Youtube?

You can hit the blue "Join" button that's also next to the subscribe button!

How can I subscribe to your channel on Twitch?

Go to <https://www.twitch.tv/crotonzelda> and subscribe! You can also use your Twitch Prime (now called Prime Gaming) for a free sub every month by connecting your Twitch and Amazon accounts! Go to settings -> Integrations, or look at the upper left corner on desktop "Try Prime". If you would like to change your current subscription to the free sub from Prime Gaming, you will need to let your current subscription run out, and then resub with Prime.

Channel History

When did you start your channel?

I started making videos in August 2017, and I started streaming in June 2018!

Is Youtube your job?

As of April 2020, Youtube has been my job!!

Where did the Drillshaft meme come from?

I threw a drillshaft across the map because it had low durability, and my mod (Vivachee) bullied me until I spent 25 minutes during a stream to go get another one. That for some reason, is how it all began...

Where did the Bread meme come from?

One time we got very excited on stream when I learned one could make Bread in Breath of the Wild, and proceeded to travel halfway across the map to do so. Since then, it's been my favorite food to make in the game!
(also, Bread = Crouton = Croton, so funny)

Who is vivachee?

My girlfriend! She also mods on YT Twitch and Discord

Who is Broton?

Broton is my older brother, and occasionally says the funnies in stream chat

Who are the plushies?

Piggy and Oink, Mud and Miggy, Penny and Zoid, Blonk and Boink are the minecraft pigs! (Normal, mud, saddle, blonk and baby) Floyd and Ham are the fries and hamburger, Bobby is the bomb, Oogi is the glasses onion, nuggie is the chicken nugget, cheese is the grilled cheese, peppy is the pepper, puppy is the goat, and Turkey is the sand seal plushie! (the list keeps growing...)

Miscellaneous

What are moderators (mods) and what do they do?

You can tell who a Twitch moderator is by the green sword badge () by their name. Youtube moderators have a blue wrench () by their name. Mods are selected members of the community who help Sam and keep the community safe, and help answer some questions that fly by in chat.

Who are your moderators?

The current moderators are:

- HeatherRP
- JudgmentLink
- justiceturtle
- orca_lost
- Taco_cat
- Uscott/platinum 11
- vivachee

How do I become mod?

Be an active member of the community and apply for mod when applications are open.

Asking for mod will hurt your chances of becoming a mod.

Who did your emotes/logo?

The channel logo's final version was made by Purrdemonium

<https://twitter.com/Purrdemonium>

For twitch emotes...

Hype, CatHugs, Bready, Goldenloaf, and Breadbow were made by Asher

<https://twitter.com/AshenDefender>

Piggyvibe and chef were made by automaraku

<https://twitter.com/automaraku>

Current Discord banner was made by dairypanda

Legacy Discord banner was made by Tykool#1611

Where did you get your water bottle?

It was custom-painted by my gf, but for the water bottle itself, you can purchase one here! (It's also insulated and comes in lots of sizes/colors)

Simple Modern Insulated Water Bottle with Straw Lid 1 Liter Reusable Wide Mouth Stainless Steel Flask Thermos, 32oz, Midnight Black
