

Privacy Policy

Top Actions Games promises to protect the personal data of its users. The company collects user data when they first use its services (for example, when they install a mobile game application), when they play the game (e.g. event analytics and personalized gameplay experiences), and when they interact with the company (for example, customer service correspondence). The company believes users have the right to know about its data collection and use policies.

Special Provisions for Children and Family

Our apps are designed with families in mind, and we take special care to make sure the ads that are allowed in our apps are appropriate. We use approved third-party ad networks, and we make sure that children playing our games are not served personalized ads.

We display Family Friendly Ads via the following Google Play Approved Ad Networks:

AppLovin

Unity

Google Admob

ironSource

Adcolony

We work with third-party analytics service providers to improve our game experience and make it more enjoyable for players. These providers help us make changes to our user interface and user experience, among other things.

The privacy policy of the analytics we use are:

<https://gameanalytics.com/privacy/>

<https://firebase.google.com/terms/data-processing-terms>

<https://appmetrica.yandex.com/about/privacy-policy>

COPPA Certified Kids and Family Games:

Fried Chicken Games ensures that its privacy practices meet the requirements of the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). This includes providing online games and apps for our family users that are COPPA compliant.

No Interest Based Ads in Games Designed for Families

We follow Google Play policy in regards to disabling interest-based or personalized ads in our family-friendly games. We don't allow personalized ads in games designed for families.

Data Access and Collection

Non-personal and Gameplay Information

After obtaining consent from the user, by agreeing to this privacy policy, Top Actions Games may collect data about how the user interacts with the application, including data about how the user interacts with the app through the use of approved third-party analytics services. When you use our services, data is automatically collected from you, sometimes in partnership with approved third party analytics service providers. We may collect your unique device identifier, IP address, mobile phone carrier, game progress, time spent playing, and achievements. This information is used for internal use only and is not shared to any third party. This information is used to constantly improve the game experience and bring improvements to the application.

Personal Information

Collection of Personal Data

Personal information is any information that identifies you. We collect personal information from you when you voluntarily submit it to us. We usually collect this information in the following ways: when you submit your registration information for our online services, when you subscribe to our newsletters or alerts, when you purchase downloadable content, virtual items, or virtual currency from us, when you request technical support, when you download demos, programs, or other software from us, or when you contact us by email, social media, or phone. We use this personal information to send you promotional materials, to provide you with access to our services, to fulfill your product orders, to fulfill “tell a friend” requests, and to respond to your questions or technical problems. If you provide us with your express consent, we may also use your personal information to contact you for other reasons.

Top Actions Games does Not Knowingly collect personal information from Children

Top Actions Games does not collect personal information from children under 13 years old. If Top Actions Games becomes aware that a child has submitted personal information to the company, Top Actions Games deletes this information immediately. Top Actions Games encourages parents to instruct their children to never give out their real names, addresses, or phone numbers, without permission, when using the Internet.

Advertising:

Our apps use Google Play approved third party advertising networks. Ads are not tailored to games designed for families. We may cross promote our other apps and games in our apps. We may also choose to cross promote other affiliated developer accounts which have the same values and privacy policy as us.

Does the Company Share my Information?

Top Actions Games does not share personal data of its users without their consent. In certain cases, such as signing up for an email list or requesting customer support, we may share your personal information with third parties in order to fulfill your request. If Top Actions Games offers services or promotions where your personal information is separately collected and used according to the privacy policy of a third party, Top

Actions Games will inform you of that at the time of collection and you may elect not to participate in the service or promotion. After consent from the user is obtained for the collection and sharing for analytics and advertising purposes, Top Actions Games may share the data with approved Google Play partners.

- Analytics platforms can help us understand how users are interacting with our app and help us identify areas where we can make improvements
- Ad Networks help us generate revenue by selling ads and providing a great user experience for free.

Tracking

Top Actions Games uses Game Analytics Advertising features to track user behavior and improve the games they play. This information includes things like retargeting ads, collecting impression data, and tracking user interests. Additionally, cookies may be used to track user behavior without collecting any personal information. You can adjust your browser's cookie settings to accept or reject these ads.

Data Security and Protection

Top Actions Games makes sure user data is kept securely. Data is kept behind a firewall. Only authorized personnel have access to the data, and only when their work requires the data. The data is stored in secure environments, both digital and physical access is secured. We also only work with Google Play Approved third parties which have similar standards of data privacy and protection.

Registration Information:

Some of Top Actions Games's games allow users to create profiles, which provide additional features such as the ability to communicate with other users, compete in leaderboards, or become part of a public community. Users are free to provide any information they wish to contribute to their profiles, and can control which parts of their profiles are made public.

Payment Information:

The user can either make purchases themselves, or have a guardian make them. These purchases could include in-game items, virtual currency, or anything else that is provided in the game or application. Processing this information will require your name, phone number, email addresses, billing and payment addresses, and your complete credit card information.

Data Retention:

Top Actions Games takes user data very seriously, and will never share personal information without the consent of the individual. Any data submitted by users will be kept confidential, and will not be shared with any third-party.

If you do not need data for a reasonable amount of time, you may request that it be deleted from company records.
