

Subject line: We help three types of people

[Company Logo]

Hi {{prospect name}}

You are already aware of the fact that our present-day job market is messed up and job search has been incredibly difficult. But even during the crisis, there are people who successfully land a job and surprisingly, some are even able to secure 3-4 job offers.

Well, that means there is no reason for you to give up on your job search. Following the right strategies and resources, you can also land your dream job even when the job market is in crisis.

There are three types of people that we help:

- Active job seekers
- Career switchers
- Employees who are looking to find a new job or get promoted.

Which one are you? Here's how we can help.

For Active Job seekers

- Find a job that's compatible for you.
- Prepare resumes and cover letters ideal for each job profile
- Attract more opportunities through networking and LinkedIn Optimization
- Crack interviews
- Negotiate better jobs

For Career Switchers

- Personalized coaching to help transition into careers you love.
- We have 45+ career guides to help you learn about your new career which are all included in our Ramped Premium subscription.
- Resume and CV optimization to build relevancy.

For Employed people looking for better career opportunities

- Resume optimization and cover letter creation
- Exploring job opportunities and autofill applications.
- Upskilling opportunities.
- Know your company in advance.

Looking to scale your job search and utilize all the best features of Ramped, then click below to try Ramped Premium.

[CTA]