PERSONAL STATEMENT

Tell us how you meet the essential criteria in the job application (and desirable criteria if you can). Share examples for each criteria. We recommend listing each criteria one by one and giving an example for each.

For example, if we ask for training skills:

I'm a good trainer and have trained many people.

I have 5 years experience delivering training in many topics including leadership and management. Feedback on my training was 90% positive and many of those I trained achieved promotions using the new skills they developed on my course.
