Caption: Camping under the stars with actor and environmentalist @shailenewoodley is a reminder that nature isn't a destination; it's all around us.

Known for her roles in The Fault in Our Stars, Big Little Lies, and Divergent, Woodley has spent her life fighting for the planet. Whether advocating for climate action at Standing Rock or living with a deep sense of mindfulness toward the Earth, she's constantly inspiring others to reconnect with nature in the simplest ways.

In the heart of Malibu's Leo Carrillo State Park, Outside writer Melissa Johnson chatted with Woodley about love, life, and how small acts of care can make a big difference for our world. For Woodley, protecting the planet and caring for people come from the same place—and she's here to show us how.

We're honored to have Woodley on our November/December 2024 Outsiders of the Year cover. Tap the link in our bio to read the feature story on Woodley.
