WHAT IS THE RESURGENCE GRANT FUND (RGF)?

The RGF is a program started in Atlanta as a part of the CARES Act in 2020 and is relaunching in 2022 as a part of the American Rescue Plan Act. The RGF provides reimbursable grants to approved businesses across the City to reimburse the costs of business interruptions as a result of required closures or local closures, social distancing or decreased customer demand due to the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as costs associated with reopening post-COVID.

WHO QUALIFIES FOR THE RGF?

A qualifying for-profit business must meet the following criteria:

- Holds a 2022 City of Atlanta business license (as required for those businesses by State, Federal, or Local law);
- Had fewer than 250 employees as of December 31, 2021;
- Can attest (via an affidavit) to having a financial hardship such as declines in revenues or impacts of periods of business closure as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; and

- Can attest that expenses being submitted for reimbursement under the RGF program have not already been covered by any other Federal or relief funds.

A qualifying non-profit business must meet the following criteria:

- Can provide a copy of the organization's IRS Determination Letter;
- Holds a 2022 City of Atlanta Business License OR can provide a 2022 City of Atlanta Letter of Good Standing;
- Had fewer than 250 employees as of December 31, 2021;
- Can attest (via an affidavit) to having a financial hardship such as declines in revenues or impacts of periods of business closure as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic; and
- Can attest that expenses being submitted for reimbursement under the RGF program have not already been covered by any other Federal or relief funds.

Please refer to the Program Overview document for a list of ineligible businesses.

HOW DO YOU APPLY FOR THE RGF?

Apply online here.

WHAT DOES THE RGF APPLICATION ENTAIL?

With your application, you must provide a variety of documentation to prove your eligibility for the program. This includes, but is not limited to, proof of an active City of Atlanta business license (for-profits), a 2022 Letter of Good Standing (non-profits), a SAVE Affidavit, a Duplication of Benefits Certification Form, summary payroll information, and itemized receipts for additional costs incurred as a result of COVID-19.

HOW WILL RGF APPLICATIONS BE REVIEWED?

Applications will be reviewed as they are received. At the end of the application period, grant applications will be scored and awarded depending on eligibility and scoring. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed and will not be given consideration.

WHY DO I HAVE TO BE A BUSINESS IN THE CITY TO QUALIFY?

Invest Atlanta is the City of Atlanta's economic development agency and works within the city of Atlanta jurisdiction; as such, we provide support to businesses of the City of Atlanta. You must have a 2022 City of Atlanta Business License (for-profits) or a 2022 Letter of Good Standing (non-profits) on file.

HOW MUCH FUNDING CAN AN APPLICANT POTENTIALLY RECEIVE?

Applicants may receive grants up to $40,000. In exchange, the grantee will strive to expand or retain current employment for six months, use his/her best efforts to complete at least fifteen (15) hours of community service with a 501(c)(3) organization of their choice, physically located within the city of Atlanta, to be evidenced by verification provided on organizational letterhead and provide a final close out narrative within one year of receiving the funds.

IS THERE A FEE TO APPLY?

There is no fee to apply for the RGF.

WHY WAS THE RESURGENCE GRANT FUND CREATED?

The purpose of the Resurgence Grant Fund (RGF) is to distribute federal grants to small businesses as a means of addressing the negative economic impact of the measures taken to control the novel COVID-19 virus in the U.S., Georgia and particularly in the City of Atlanta.

CAN AN OWNER OF MULTIPLE BUSINESSES RECEIVE MULTIPLE RGF GRANTS?

Yes, as long as each business has its own 2022 City of Atlanta Business License (for-profits) or 2022 Letter of Good Standing (non-profits).
