

Good morning and happy Sabbath. I hope everyone is well today. So today's story is about a guy named Sam needed some supplies so he went down to his local store. As he started approaching in the store. He saw a big box that read free puppies.

He thought to himself and realize he couldn't take care of her puppy right now it was too much responsibility for him. He went into the store and looked around and purchased a couple items. Once he came out, he looked at the box again, and he saw there was only one puppy left. He looked at those big puppy eyes and he couldn't resist. So he took the dog home with them. He later named the dog Hansel, which means gift from God. He decided to train the puppy and as months went by, the puppy got really big.

One day when Sam was coming home, he was really tired from work. He took out the dog, fed him, gave him water, and then went back to sleep. Well, he didn't realize is when he had went out to take the dog. He forgot to lock the door. So around that same night, during the night, he heard the dog barking. And so at first he thought he was just barking at an outside squirrel. So then he decided to just yell out Be quiet to the dog. Then the dog continued to bark. He yelled out even louder. The dog continued to bark and then you hear to shatter of glass. Sam got up and came running. Then he saw his dog they're barking at the guy would turn quickly and ran away when a big vase had shattered right on the floor. Sam was terrified, but at the same time, he was so happy he had his dog right there. He wouldn't know what would have happened if his dog wasn't there to protect him. Just like Hansel guarded Sam, God sends guardian angels down from heaven to guard us. Psalms 91:11 even says,

For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

So remember, God is always protecting you. Thank you.
