

Hello fiends and welcome to my little “stall” for my offering to Fandom Trumps Hate.

I have decided to offer a physical hand binding of my Good Omens time loop fic, Friday I’m in Love, which you can read here.

Rating: Explicit. Words: 37,497.

I am in talks with several artists to add new illustrations to the fic for this project, which will be printed in high quality in your physical copy.

I am offering this as a single item to be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

The link to the auction form is here.

The sheet with the current bids is here.

I will be in touch with the highest bidder to update you on the progress as I have the pages printed and create the binding etc. I expect it to be finished by December 2025.

Happy bidding!
