

Privacy Policy for Alias

Last Updated: September 1, 2023

Introduction

Thank you for choosing Dot Env. We respect and protect the privacy of our users. This Privacy Policy details our commitment to safeguarding your privacy.

Information We Collect and How We Use It

Given the nature of Dot Env, we do not collect, store, or transmit any of your personal data. All URLs and text you save using our extension are stored exclusively in your browser's local storage. This means:

- We have no access to this data.
- The data does not leave your computer.
- It is not transmitted to any servers or third parties.

Dot Env serves as a tool to help you manage shortcuts, and all information remains under your control.

Security

The data you save using Dot Env remains on your computer. We recommend you ensure your computer's security and regularly back up your data.

Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

Dot Env does not use cookies or similar technologies.

Your Choices

You have full control over the data stored in the local storage of your browser. You can delete it or modify it at any time through the chrome developer console.

Updates to This Policy

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. If any changes occur, we will notify users by updating the “Last Updated” date at the top of this policy.
