Old National Bank (ONB) - Diveeta Kinchen, Community Development Mortgage Loan Officer for ONB, has worked in the financial industry for over 35 years. She is accredited with developing successful collaborations with civic groups, local realtors, and our local government. Additionally, Diveeta has experience working with non-profit housing organizations, faith-based entities, and affordable housing developers. She has been recognized by various organizations for her dedication to community service. Diveeta's extensive knowledge of the mortgage lending process and community connections is a great resource for those looking to purchase their first home, or make improvements on their current home.
