To whom it may concern,

We are the legal representatives for Judge Unseatedduke1. We write to you regarding the post your organization, The Radish, made on 7/24/24, titled “Judge Unseatedduke1 Joins Fight Against Big Media.” (<https://discord.com/channels/673612908868927498/754622580777812130/1265763518641340519>) This post contains defamatory statements which are not only false but also damaging to the reputation of Judge Unseatedduke1.

Your publication states, “In an public statement from Judge Unseatedduke1, it became clear that he hates Big Media and supports the newer, shining stars of journalism like the Radish. ‘I like the real news topics, but fake news shouldn't be in the news channel,’ said the honorable judge.” This quote is taken out of context and its implications are entirely fabricated and misleading. Judge Unseatedduke1 does not hold the views attributed to him in your post.

According to the Defamation Act of October 2020, Section 2 defines defamation as “a false and unprivileged statement of fact that can negatively impact someone's reputation.” Furthermore, Section 4 specifies that libel is a “published false statement that is damaging to a person’s reputation.”

The statements published by The Radish fall squarely within this definition, as they are untrue, published without privilege and have cause significant harm to Judge Unseatedduke1’s reputation. As a public figure and respected member of the judiciary, his credibility and professional standing are paramount. The dissemination of such false information is not only reckless but legally actionable.

We hereby demand that The Radish:

1. Immediately cease and desist from publishing any further false or defamatory statements about Judge Unseatedduke1.
2. Remove the aforementioned post from all platforms and websites under The Radish's control.
3. Issue a public retraction and apology to Judge Unseatedduke1, clearly stating that the statements made were false and without basis.
4. Provide written confirmation within ten 72 hours of receipt of this letter that you have complied with the above demands.

Failure to comply with these demands will result in our client pursuing all available legal remedies, including but not limited to, filing a lawsuit for defamation, seeking injunctive relief, and requesting monetary damages for the harm caused.

This letter is not a complete or exhaustive statement of all of our client's rights or claims, and nothing herein is intended as, nor should it be construed as, a waiver or relinquishment of our client's rights or remedies, whether legal or equitable, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

We look forward to your prompt attention to this serious matter.

Sincerely,

IncompleteRiver, Senior Associate
