Abstract

A concise abstract is required (about 250 words). The abstract should be informative and state briefly the aim of the research, the principal results and major conclusions. An abstract must be able to stand alone (completely self-explanatory). References should not be cited, but if essential, then cite the author(s) and year(s). Abbreviations should be avoided, but if essential, they must be defined at their first mention. Abstract is typed on white paper of A4 (210x297 mm²) size, in a single column, single space, 9-point (9 pt) Times New Roman font.

Keywords are about five words, covering scientific and local name (if any), research theme, and special methods which used; sorted from A to Z; and 8-point (8 pt) Times New Roman font.
