Text

Consume

You take out the humongous slab of pinkish bacon from your pack, taking a few moments to admire its weight, girth, and length. Looking at the label you see the silhouette of an ausar lady eating a humongous slab of bacon, one much bigger than her, with BaCum written in white on the bacon. The instructions claim that the process is messy and it warns you to take off your clothes, which you promptly do so. As soon as you open the plastic wrapping, the pinkish bacon begins to cook, sizzling and releasing large wads of fat as its flesh turns red. Once it looks cooked enough, you unwrap it further and let it cool for a minute.

You stretch your jaws to the limit, trying to fit the girthy bacon inside, and bite down. Jets of sizzling fat, hot; but not scalding, burst from the meat as you cram it into your mouth. While holding the plastic wrapping you pull the meat with your teeth, stretching it until it snaps away from the rest. You chew those bits of long, stringy meat into chunks and liquid fat, which you promptly swallow. As soon as you give another bite, the fat explodes in your face, drenching you in grease.

After a while, you manage to consume the whole thing, licking your fingers of grease as you finish it. You check yourself with your codex and see that your face, neck, and even your [pc.breasts] are covered in grease.

Else

Effect: Already Bacon Cum or Unable to Cum

While waiting for something to happen, you clean yourself of all the remaining grease. Your [pc.crotch] feels itchy and you feel full from devouring the slab of bacon, but nothing else seems to change. Eventually you stop waiting and get yourself dressed. Looks like you already have the full effect of the transformative meat.

Targeted Consumption
