

Fall Gathering and Sustainability Conversations:
Connecting place-based education and disciplinary literacy
November 3, 4:15 - 5:30 p.m.
Virtual, Total SCECHs: 1.25 (pending)

Participant Agenda

Overview

This session will focus on the intersections of literacy instruction and place-based sustainability education, with a special emphasis on disciplinary literacy. We'll review the K-12 Literacy Essentials, explore Essential Practices for Disciplinary Literacy Instruction, and discuss how these strategies can be integrated into your PBSE projects. We'll also have time to share challenges and successes, and review mini-grant instructions.

Zoom Meeting Details

- <https://umich.zoom.us/j/93604251374?pwd=ONGg9s1MyajcSaFCVtqFkGzb8X2kps.1>
- Meeting ID: 936 0425 1374
- Passcode: 491632

Session Agenda
• Welcome & Session Overview
• Fellows Reflecting and Sharing: PBSE Successes, Challenges, and Solutions - small groups
• Digging Deeper: Intersections of literacy instruction and place-based sustainability education ○ Intro: What is disciplinary literacy? Which practices closely overlap with Place-based education? ○ Explore: Building example learning connections in small groups
• Upcoming opportunities: ○ End of Fall Stipends ○ Winter & Spring Activities
• Wrap-up: ○ Gots & Needs ○ SCECHs: Be sure to sign in and complete this SCECH request form to receive SCECHs

Support provided by the Dow Company Foundation, NOAA Great Lakes Bay Watershed Education & Training (B-WET), the Bay Area Community Foundation, and the Marsal Family School of Education.