About The INLDC Peoples Assembly

On March 13 from 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM, the Indiana Latino Democratic Caucus (INLDC), alongside immigrant-rights organizations, community leaders, and advocates, will gather at the Indiana State House for The People's Assembly Press Conference.

With over 15 anti-immigration bills introduced this session, lawmakers are working overtime to criminalize, exclude, and target immigrant communities. We refuse to let this go unchecked.

This isn't just a press conference—it's a call to action. It's a space for us to come together, to push back, and to send a clear message: We're here, we're watching, and we're fighting back.

What to Expect:

- Insights from legislative allies & community leaders
- A space to connect with advocates & organizations
- Action steps to fight back against harmful policies

When: Thursday, March 13, 2025 | 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Where: Indiana State House, 200 W Washington St, Indianapolis, IN 46204 (4th Floor, South Atrium)

Show up, be heard, and stand with us. We need numbers in the room. Let's pack the State House and remind them: our communities aren't going anywhere.

About Indiana Latino Democratic Caucus

Founded in 2010, the Indiana Latino Democratic Caucus (INLDC) works to ensure Latino Hoosiers are actively engaged in the political process through legislative advocacy, civic education, and community engagement. A volunteer-led organization, INLDC strives to increase Latino representation and address key issues impacting our communities.
