ITHAUNTS is an independent, private & selective multi-muse roleplay blog from shows such as the vampire diaries, stranger things, the umbrella academy + more. Please be advised that this blog may contain some triggering content such as mentions of death, self harm, previous abuse in the muse's life, blood, gore & more; everything will be tagged accordingly in the following format { tw: TRIGGER HERE }. Thank you.

first rule

by no means do i condone the behavior of some of my canon characters, any toxic behavior will be tagged as follows; { CW: WARNING HERE }. if any of my characters use fc's that make you uncomfortable, please do not hesitate to message me and i will gladly switch to another fc to make you feel more comfortable interacting with this blog.

second rule

i will not interact with the following fc's amber heard, jennifer lawrence, colton haynes, comedians of any kind, models, musicians, deceased fc's, matt davis (please change any alaric fc's), lindsay lohan, katherine heigl, patrick dempsey. i will add more to this as the names come to me, but these are the following fc's that i won't rp with.

third rule

there will eventually be mains & exclusives on this blog, however, it may take me some time to be comfortable with fellow muns as i am extremely shy by nature & have pretty intense social anxiety. please don't be put off by this, i swear i'm a nice person it just takes me a little time to warm up. i apologize if this causes any inconvenience.

fourth rule

please be aware that many of my muses are lgbtqia+ as is the mun, it makes me more comfortable to make my characters pan, for the most part, as that is my orientation as well. ships are not the main focus on this blog & does not expect romantic ships of any kind regardless of one of my muses having a “crush”. ships may ONLY be attained organically, there is absolutely no ship-forcing here.

fifth rule

hate of any kind will not be tolerated on this blog. if you are anti-black, homophobic, transphobic, are pro-police, pro-life etc please do not interact with me in any shape or form. if i come into contact with any of the aforementioned, i will block you faster than you can blink. anonymous asks have been disabled and most definitely will not be getting turned back on for the duration of this blog's usage. this is not a discussion, this will not change.

sixth rule

this blog uses formatting such as italics, bold, small fonts & icons/gif icons. that being said, i do not require you to do the same as i do, just please cut your posts. also, while i will sometimes post starts that are on the shorter side, i do prefer to write at least 4-6 paragraphs in my threads to get more of a lock on how our interactions work. if you post exclusively in one-liners or lyrics i will not be interacting with you. thank you.

DAMON SALVATORE
06/18/1839 | SCORPIO
MALE | HE / HIM
STRAIGHT | ANY SHIPS
FC; BEN BARNES

After the death of the only person who had been able to get through to him, he has decided to revert to his old ways of mayhem, carnage, and general disregard for any and all human life. Damon doesn't really love Elena, he only wanted her because Stefan loved her more than he's ever loved anyone before, only using her to get back at Stefan for countless things that he blames the younger Salvatore for. — He is more like Season One Damon but a little darker, angrier and pretty much snarky-er.

 please note that while some of my original muses have "crushes" on canons, that does not mean that i want to turn these into romantic ships. they can have a crush without the need to be in a romantic ship off the bat.
