

School-Parent Compact for Achievement

What is a School-Parent Compact?

A School-Parent Compact for Achievement is an agreement that parents, students and teachers develop together.

It explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all students reach or exceed grade-level standards.

Jointly Developed

Title I Parents, ELAC Parents, and School Site Council reviewed and revised our School-Parent Compact. The views of Parents, Teachers, and Administrators were heard at a School Site Council Meeting and the final version of the School-Parent Compact was approved.

STUDENTS

Student: I agree to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of my ability:

Come to school prepared and ready to learn and work hard.

Be able to explain what I am learning and why it is important. Produce high quality work that meets grade level standards of my class.

Bring all of my materials, completed assignments and homework. Read every day. Know and follow school rules: Be Safe, Be Respectful and Be Responsible. Talk to my family regularly about what I am learning.

Prepare myself academically in order to be college and career ready. I will not be absent more than 7 days throughout the school year and I will arrive on time.

Respect my school, my classmates, staff, families and the community.

Teachers, Parents, Students—Together for Success

IN THE CLASSROOM

Teacher: I agree to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of my ability:

Teach interesting and challenging lessons that are aligned to the Common Core Standards, promote higher student achievement, academic rigor, and incorporate communications, collaboration, creativity and critical thinking skills in order to prepare students to be college and career ready.

Maintain high expectations for each student and help them develop the love of learning. Provide meaningful, daily homework assignments to reinforce and extend learning. Participate in professional development and collaboration opportunities to improve teaching and learning and to support the formation of partnerships with families.

Provide a safe, positive and caring atmosphere for learning. Be flexible and available to communicate frequently with parents. Welcome them as partners in their child's education. Work with families and school colleagues to make school accessible and welcoming by providing opportunities for parents to volunteer, observe, and participate in classroom activities whenever possible.

Respect my school, my students, staff and families.

AT HOME

Family: I agree to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of my ability:

Communicate the importance of learning and higher education to my child.

Monitor my child's attendance and ensure they are not absent more than 7 days throughout the school year or tardy on a regular basis. Support my child's learning at home by monitoring homework and signing my child's reading log daily.

Read with my child and encourage my child to read every day. Read school notices and bulletins and respond when necessary.

Regularly monitor my child's progress in school by participating in Parent-Teacher Conferences, Back to School Night, Open House, workshops, council and committee meetings and volunteer at the parent center or in a classroom.

Respect my school, students, staff and families.

School Mission: Our school community believes that all students will achieve academic proficiency and develop the social skills needed to become productive citizens that are able to contribute to their community.
