"Just A Girl" by No Doubt

ENTRANCE DESCRIPTION

~The OCWTron goes blank and the lights drop in the arena. "Just a Girl" opening riff rips through the arena. The lights begin to flicker dark purple, pink and silver to the beat and Victoria's scorpion emblem appears on the OCWTron in her signature purple.~

Belvedere: Making their way to the ring...

Take this pink ribbon off my eyes

I'm exposed and it's no big surprise

Don't you think I know exactly where I stand?

This world is forcing me to hold your hand

~The name Victoria Strader in large font starts to flash in silver and purple, with shots of her in ring career in Project Dishonour and OCW. She walks to both sides of the top, amping the OCW Faithful up! ~

Belvedere: Weighing in at One Hundred and Fifty-Five pounds...

'Cause I'm just a girl, a little 'ol me

Well don't let me out of your sight

Oh I'm just a girl, all pretty and petite

So don't let me have any rights

~ Hands on her hips, her hair pulled back tight in her signature ponytail and, sneer across her lips. She starts to strut down to the ring, in brand new ring gear of black pants, with pink scorpions on the outer parts of her hips, and a black leather crop top with the crisscrossed lace across her cleavage up to her neck underneath a black leather jacket with no sleeves and the CFH patch on the back. ~

Belvedere: Hailing from Muskoka, Canada by way of London, Ontario Canada...

~ Victoria Strader stares at the ring. ~

*Oh I've had it up to here
The moment that I step outside
So many reasons for me to run and hide
I can't do the little things I hold so dear
'Cause it's all those little things that I fear*

~ Vee walks up the steel steps and wipes her boots on the apron before stepping through the second and top rope like a normal human being. ~

*'Cause I'm just a girl I'd rather not be
'Cause they won't let me drive late at night
Oh I'm just a girl, guess I'm some kind of freak
'Cause they all sit and stare with their eyes*

Belvedere: She is the second nicest Strader...

~ Strader stands in the centre of the ring. ~

*Oh I'm just a girl, take a good look at me
Just your typical prototype
Oh I've had it up to here
Oh am I making myself clear?
I'm just a girl
I'm just a girl in the world
That's all that you'll let me be*

She sneers as she watches the ramp for her opponent.

WRESTLING STYLE

STRENGTHS

1. Mind Over Matter - Victoria can “will” pain away to continue fighting
2. Pride - has a deep pride of where she came from of Rivers and Strader bloodlines where she refuses to fail
3. Intellect - Victoria is intelligent and doesn’t step into the ring blindly. She uses her intelligence to study her opponent to learn tendencies and scout how they will attack

WEAKNESSES

1. Mind over Matter - as much as it is a strength it’s also a detriment because no matter how much pain can be willed away, you can’t do much with a broken bone
2. Pride - As much good as it does pride is also detrimental. Her refusal to quit can be a danger to her health
3. Intellect - As smart as she is, she also considers herself smarter than her opponent which can lead to arrogance

BIOGRAPHY

4th Generation Strader. To be told over time.

On August 24th, 2000, a teenage Meghan Strader, gave birth to fraternal twins, but she didn't know that, having passed out during labour. Her father, Scott Nash Strader, knew that if his daughter were aware she had given birth to twins, she would keep them instead of going the route of adoption, so he found a home for the second child Cara (for 5000 dollars), and Victoria was given up for adoption.

Fate brought Victoria into Meghan's life as the girlfriend of a young woman that she had taken under her wing, Maxine "Mad Max" Riggs. Eventually, all the parties put together that Victoria was indeed one of the children she had. Soon discovering Cara shortly after. Fate being what it is, Victoria and Cara were actually best friends, meeting by chance, attending the same elementary school.

In a phenomenon called heteropaternal superfecundation, Victoria's father was discovered to be Matthew Knox (but turns out not be the case), and Cara's father was Ryan Gaudet. Meghan and Matthew met at a party her dad was having in California and conceived Victoria. The following day Meghan returned home to London, Ontario and conceived Cara with Ryan, an older man who had taken advantage of an angry daughter.

What no one knew was that Victoria carried two souls in her, her own and that of Veronica. Victoria suffered from what her dad's side called The Affliction, like him and his cousins Supreme Machine and Queen Machine Jenny. The Affliction used Veronica, who had been trapped within Victoria's psyche their whole life and acted as her puppet master.

Veronica, influenced by the evil Affliction, was able to gain control of Victoria's body and trapped her inside her psyche. It was during this period that Veronica had become involved physically with the OCW Champion, Christian "Outcast" Cain, eventually falling in love with him and he did her. Cara in a misguided attempt to get her best friend and sister back, confronted Veronica in Key West at the OCW Arena and was thrown off the roof of the arena by the Affliction controlled Veronica.

With Veronica in control, she began to carve out her own life, surviving The Great Purge in OCW and winning the OCW TransAtlantic Championship. Their mother, Meghan, was desperate to get Victoria back. She convinced her sister, Tamika Strader, to put some money together and saved OCW from financial ruin while also joining the roster as a talent. After Veronica had defeated The Lost Stranger in a successful title defence, she fell into what in OCW is known as THE PORTAL POTTY, a pathway to the future inside of a porta-potty (classic OCW, baby!), but it sent her to another dimension. When Victoria came back out of it when the wrestlers and crew of OCW were stranded on a deserted island, she was followed out by Veronica.

No one understood how it was even possible, but Veronica got her very own body, and the two souls had been split apart. Before Veronica's defence against the monster (and uncle) known as Supreme Machine, the two entered back into the portal to take care of an issue they left unfinished. Back in the other future alternate dimension, Victoria sacrificed herself for Veronica, finally destroying the Affliction. Veronica, before she stepped back through to defend her championship and defeat the personal demons that had been echoing in her, took Victoria's body to someone who could preserve it in case Victoria returned.

After defeating Supreme Machine, Veronica started to build relationships with her mother and aunt, continuing with Outcast and fixing a damaged link with Cara.

Unbeknownst to the family and Outcast, Victoria returned in May during an OCW event called Big Game Hunting (straight-outta-Djibouti!) and having been manipulated into believing Veronica tried to get rid of her; she trapped Outcast in that time loop for months (although it was years for him) and eventually threw Veronica off the top of TD Garden in Boston, MA with the trailer of a semi-truck breaking her fall, but it had put her into a coma after being reunited with her love, Outcast.

Victoria spent time as OCW Commissioner. She eventually married her girlfriend, Brooklyn, and is set to give birth to their son in February. She learned like the rest of the family, that someone tampered with the DNA test that said The Raven was her father but as it turns, an unknown source messed with the results. As it turns out, Ryan Gaudet is the brother of Supreme Machine and Queen Machine Jenny, as well as her real father. She can only hope that the Affliction doesn't affect her son who was born on Valentine's Day 2025.
