NEW v1.5: TONS OF UPDATE TO META SECTION REVAMPED SPEC TIERLIST (ADDED ARLONG SPEC) ORGANIZATION 🥲

Beginner:

As you start the game, you have 4 different categories to farm, chakra, strength, speed, and sword. It's important to select which one you want to focus on if you want to become stronger or go for leaderboards. The first step to becoming skilled is farming the questline by boom (bang) but here's a short ver to speedrun the early stages:

Soru Today at 1:19 AM
so uh

Go to killua, over by the gym area, and get his quest, then jiraiya which is on the side of the map the boat for defense is on, finally go talk to ace who is at a tree on the beach where the junkyard is
If u start those quests early game then u can complete them as u prog
Also any time u go to claim a quest make sure u pop a coins boost
Gives way more coins late game

Soru Also any time u go to claim a quest make sure u pop a coins boost

Soru Today at 1:21 AM
U don't need to do this if u got one active
That's how I speedran my current shit

U may obtain boosts via trophy quests (achievements) in the top right

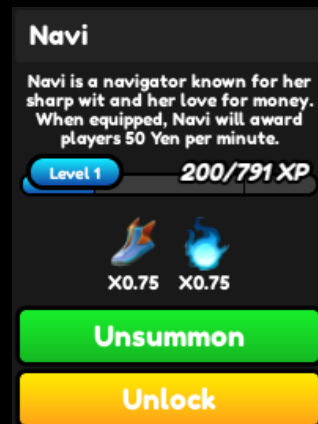

That's pretty much it for an early game guide, make sure to complete ALL quests before continuing to farm, feel free to use stat boosts if you think progression is too slow but DO NOT use all of them, they're useful for after you complete everything too.

Ps: If you decide to summon units, make sure to save at bare minimum 100k Chikara, it sounds like a lot, however it's worth it since you get more out of your luck boost, also be sure to summon only when Broly is in Banner since he's extremely good later on.

What to do later in the game?

Now that you did all the quests and have pretty much all you need to just start open farming, you'll need stuff to help you get more power efficiently, the most obvious choice is units in the banner, which you most likely summoned some of by now. Well anyway, the most meta unit in the game right now would be Nami or "Navi" in game, however this unit is a secret and takes long to get, so first you want to farm Chikara by fighting bosses or farming the "pain" raid boss, next you should save something like 300k chikara for the most optimized path, then summon with luck boost, Nami is the best possible unit for you to get but Broly is an alternative if you cannot get that yet. Here is Nami's buffs (shiny)

Now the "50" yen they say you get is actually 1300 when the unit is shiny, therefore is practically free progression when you overnight afk, which you should've been doing by now hopefully. If you can get Nami then you'll be set to keep upgrading your powers to keep progressing, the best method to farm yen currently is to go to Saiyan island then go get the "Captain Saiyan" quest and finally go fight the boss, that is the best method to manually farm yen currently. Well anyway now all you need for leaderboards is solid afk time and keep farming Captain Saiyan until you upgrade your powers.

Hardcore Game Info For Confused Players

(This section gonna be long and might be hard to gather the information you need, however the info will most likely be here)

Controls:

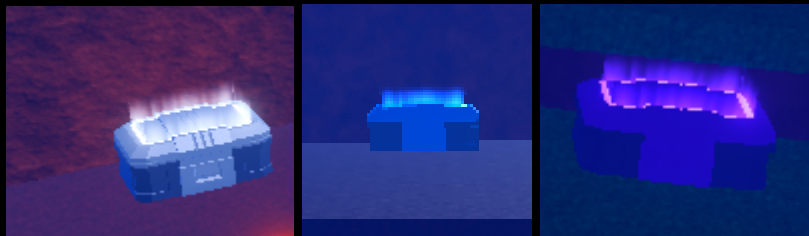

(you obviously can go over your moves in the powers tab so I won't be including those)

Movement Ability: Ctrl

Crates:

You can find different color crates around the map ranging from gray→blue-purple→golden which can all give you different amounts of yen.

Grey gives you a small amount of yen, blue gives more yen, and purple gives even more yen, there's ALSO a golden one which gives you the "capsule bike" mount and more yen.

Use them to make your unit shiny at the Bulma building, go out the front of spawn, dawn the steps and take a right then go straight down that street to find the building.

Devil fruits:

No fixed time for spawn time nor location, they spawn randomly and at random times (estimated to be 30/45 min), very hard to find.

A boss drop you get from Shukaku which you can use to complete gaara questline after you get the shukaku transformation which is a low chance boss drop.

Devil fruit reset:

Talk to Rayleigh behind the gym to reset your devil fruit.

Stands:

Stands IMO aren't the best, however if you want the most meta ones, it's obviously going to be star platinum or the world, Magicians red is pretty good and if you can't get anything other than commons just use The hand.

TIP: Different color on a special move is what it scales off of, so.

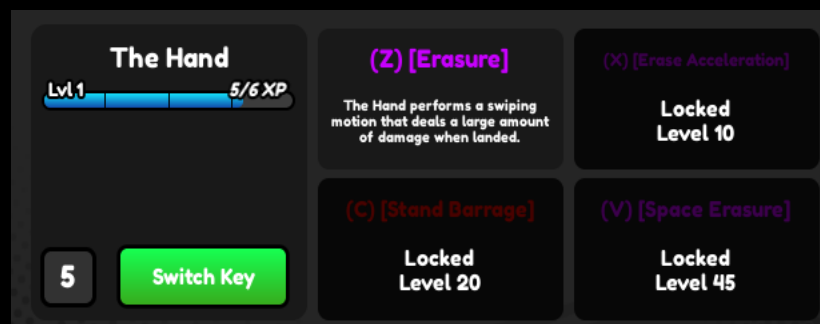

Purple= Chakra

Red= Strength

Green= Sword

And hypothetically Yellow would mean speed and blue would be durability.

META TACTICS:

META POWERS (7/31/2023)

Currently Chakra and sword are meta powers to focus on, if you want leaderboards you should 100% focus on them.

META YEN FARM METHODS

EASY: Fly over to Ice Island and talk to the quest Npc, accept the "Yeti" quest and fly over there to kill, after completing, fly back and talk to the npc again, wait 10 seconds for the quest to restock, rinse and repeat.

MEDIUM: Fly over to Demon Slayer/ Forest Island and look for the quest npc, get the "arrow demon" quest (This one is actually quite difficult for low dps) then go fight arrow demon, fly back to quest npc, talk to them, wait for quest to restock in 10 seconds, rinse and repeat.

HARD: Fly over to Saiyan Island, talk to quest npc, accept the "Saiyan Captain" quest, fight the Saiyan Captain, talk to npc, wait for quest restock in 10 seconds, rinse and repeat.

The Hard difficulty will obviously give you the most yen, however it takes the most dps to complete in fast times, if you can do it consistently, then feel free to use yen boosts. If you get a 1 minute clear time you'll average 600k yen/hr so, extremely good.

META UNITS:

(This is only for farming NOT for bosses)

The current meta can be taken many ways for units, I'll give you my personal opinion as a day 1 player, and then a general consensus or opinion of most players.

Currently the meta is obviously gonna revolve around the secret units (Nami/Navi and Boros/Boro) and although KCM Naruto (The p2w 1,500 rbx) Naruto could be seen as good, he cannot compare to the secrets so now I'll get into it.

MY OPINION:

I believe that Nami/Navi Is the best unit due to her passive ability to give you yen overtime, since Nami gives 50 yen/min you might say she is bad, well if you get shiny Nami you gain 1,300 yen/minute so if you afk overnight you'll gain TONS of yen to upgrade your powers in the morning, and that's why I think Nami is the best.

POPULAR OPINION:

Many players believe that Nami is not the best, and that Boros is in fact a better unit, Boros give .6x on Chakra, Strength, Defense and has a 15% counterattack chance when being attacked. So if you level boros up he does have potential to be extremely strong in any form.

OVERALL CONCLUSION:

I still believe Nami is better since she gives .75x towards chakra which is in current meta so you have a headstart on boros by more, on top of that Nami's yen ability is crazy.

META CHIKARA FARM METHOD:

You'll get more or less chikara depending on your items during this farming strategy, however all methods are effective for farming chikara and you should be able to get any units you want if you're willing to farm enough.

RECOMMENDED METHOD

For the fastest way to get chikara you'll need Mera, and pain headband/Scout cloak (depending if you're Chakra or Sword main it's also recommended that you have the Arlong boss spec since it's extremely strong against bosses and pain. So every 10 minutes you'll need to fight ALL bosses in the order they spawn, make sure you can clear this as fast as possible, then the time in between boss spawns, you'll go fight pain just try and clear as much as you can and equip your accessory depending on your main attack power.

My friend @yuri2.0 managed to make 400k chikara in one day using this method, however if you can do it faster than him, you'll be getting far more. On top of this you can get boss specs and drops for free from all of it. (Also wanna mention that if you have golden ape, the spec drop from Oozaru, USE HIS MOVES, the beam attack does CRAZY damage)

BROKIE METHOD:

This method isn't actually for poor players, just for those who don't have everything above. So all you wanna do is farm all bosses every 10 minutes and farm pain in between boss spawns, make sure you have all your best abilities equipped, I plan to make a "meta pain farm" section so you can see what abilities would suit you best depending on what you wanna go for or have higher power in.

META PAIN FARM STRAT:

DISCLAIMER:

This is ONLY going to be for the best items, I will not be making a method for those who do not have them, if you wish to have a method that does not use these items, check out the "META CHIKARA FARM METHOD" section

THE METHOD:

Alright so, your stats are all heavily nerfed from fighting pain, so this is going to be all the best powers you can use against him, and also some you should AVOID using to farm pain efficiently so, you want to equip conquerors haki for stun, spirit bomb for AOE and low cooldown, and also cero because kamehameha does high dmg but the windup isn't worth it on later pain tiers, it's also very important to have the ARLONG spec, since his boomerang ability is extremely powerful against bosses in general and is overall META for sword mains. I'm fairly sure you can also use the golden ape's beam move and if you can for pain then use it, as I mentioned before it's extremely broken, and finally use MERA fruit because it's broken for boss farming or fighting anything. GL YALL

META POWER EQUIPS:

There will be 3 different sections for this and I'll try to break it down to 2 different power types being the meta ones for atk, aka SWORD and CHAKRA, I'll also include meta transformations and the best other powers, a quick disclaimer, this WILL NOT be meta spec moves, ONLY the powers you obtain from stats will be included. Also these powers are based around just being good in general NOT the best powers for bosses.

CHAKRA:

The best powers to equip for Chakra mains are: Spirit bomb, Kamehameha, Cero, and Chidori.

SWORD:

The best powers to equip for Sword mains are: Flying slash, Ki slash, Getsuga tenshou, Devastating lunge.

Misc stuff:

Conqueror's haki (It stuns) Hamon for dmg buff (USE SUPER SAIYAN IF YOU HAVE BROLY + THE OOZARU TAIL ACCESSORY/SCOUT CAPE), and that's all, feel free to add sword moves to your build as well, since even if you don't have them as your main stat, whilst your moves are on cooldown you can use sword moves and vice versa to chakra.
