$40,000 Available in Scholarships from GreenStone Farm Credit Services

EAST LANSING, MICH. (Jan. 18, 2022) – To continue investing in agricultural education and supporting the long-term success of the industry, GreenStone Farm Credit Services is once again awarding up to $40,000 to incoming college freshmen pursuing a degree in an agriculture-related field.

Applications are now being accepted and must be received by February 28, 2022. Students attending a four-year college program can earn a $2,000 scholarship, while $1,000 awards will go to selected students attending a two-year college program.

Since 2010, GreenStone has presented over $350,000 in undergraduate college scholarships to the agriculture's next generation of leaders.

"GreenStone is committed to our mission of providing leadership and educational opportunities to agricultural communities to develop strong leaders of tomorrow," says Dave Armstrong, CEO and President of GreenStone. "Not only do the students selected as scholarship recipients benefit from the program but agriculture overall as it gains smart, passionate industry leaders."

Scholarship applicants must reside within GreenStone's territory, which includes Michigan and select counties in northeastern Wisconsin; must be a full-time high school graduating senior; have at least a 3.0 grade point average; and plan to study an agriculture-related field. In addition, applicants should demonstrate participation and leadership in school, community and agricultural activities.

For additional guidelines or to apply for the scholarship today, visit www.greenstonefcs.com/community/scholarships.
