2nd Draft: Optimizing Efficiency

Hello (name) team,

Your construction work in the Vancouver region is excellent in building new homes.

We've worked with companies such as (name of prior client), and one extra step has worked wonders in finishing the construction more efficiently.

And that extra step is post-construction cleaning, delivering a white-glove finish to your property.

Our team performs extensive cleaning to ensure no health hazards or messes remain.

With our partnership, they were able to save lots of time for the important aspects of construction.

If you are interested, please let us know!

Cheers,
