1. Read the following passage then answer the questions. (6 points)

Everyone loves a wedding, but people celebrate weddings in a thousand different ways. A groom in Spain gives his bride her wedding ring and then a little money in order to show that he will work hard for everything they need. In Scotland, people only eat half of the cake at the wedding. They keep the other to eat when the first child arrives. In Palestine, the bride sticks some bread dough to the front door of her new home. This is to show that she and her husband will stay together all their lives. Round the world, wedding customs are very different, but they are all for the same purpose: to put a man and a woman on the road to a happy future together.
