

Course Title:	Contemporary Issues in Education: An English 11 Course for Future Educators
Course #: 218 Course Term: Yearlong Grade Levels: Grade 11 Graduation Credit: English CSU/UC: English (b) UC Honors designation: Honors CTE Pathway: Education	Contemporary Issues in Education is a college preparatory eleventh grade English course integrated with the Education pathway standards of the Education, Child Development, and Family Services sector, which allows students to see where the skills of English intersect with the elements of education. Students conduct research, closely read and analyze complex texts, evaluate instructional methodology and philosophy, and create a portfolio of reflections, activities, and compositions that, when synthesized, serve as the foundation for three capstone projects. Students will present a standards-based lesson plan, research a contemporary issue in education, and participate in a mock job interview, all of which prepare them for further education and career opportunities in the field of Education, Child Development, and Family Services.