S Today is an ODD Period day

Good morning, Longhorns! As we wrap up our focus on Honesty this month, remember: doing the right thing—even when no one is watching—is the true test of character. Choose honesty today in your words, your work, and your actions. West Middle is at its best when we're all part of the HERD.

This week is Red Ribbon Week. To celebrate we will have a spirit week. The theme for each day will be as follows:

Today- "Put Drugs to Rest" (Pajama Day-follow school dress code)
W- "West Spirit Day" (Wear West Spirit gear for a drug free school)
Th- "Wear Bright Colors to Shine Drugs Away" (Wear brightly colored clothes)
F- "Dress Up and Scare Drugs Away" (Wear a costume and donate $1 for York-follow school dress code)

Don't forget to wear a costume to school on Halloween, October 31st. To do so, please bring $1 to your grade-level hallway "Support Our York" table. You will be given a paw print sticker to show you've paid to wear your costume for the day.

Remember...

- Halloween costumes must be school appropriate and comfortable enough to wear all day.
- Costumes cannot be offensive, violent, or gory.
- Costumes cannot interfere with your ability to do your classwork, navigate the hallways, or use the restroom.
- No face masks, face paint, or accessories that need to be carried around

Intramural Basketball will begin the week of November 3rd. It is open to all three grades and will meet on Mondays and Thursdays in the main gym. Be sure to sign-up each day you intend to stay. Mr. Remes will be the sponsor for this activity.

Happy birthday to the following students:

If you are wanting to attend the Varsity Football game tonight you will need to be present with a responsible adult over the age of 21 who will also be there for the duration of the game. In addition, throwing of a football or other athletic equipment during the game is also not allowed. This is to ensure the safety of all spectators. Please remember that our behavior expectations at school also apply while you are at any Parkway School District event. Please remember to be respectful while in attendance as you are not only representing yourselves but your school as well.

Happy birthday to the following students:

Today is an ODD Period day.

Today is Custodian Appreciation day. Thank you to each of you who work tirelessly to ensure that our school is clean and a welcoming place to come to each day. Many of the things that you do go unnoticed but are appreciated. Students and staff, if you see any of our custodians today, please tell them thank you for all that they do.

Tomorrow is our 3rd annual Family Tailgate here at West Middle School. This event will take place prior to the West High Varsity Football game where our Jr. Longhorn Teams will be recognized at halftime. This event is open to everyone and proceeds from the event will be donated to the Parkway Food Pantry. More details can be found in this weekend's parent newsletter.

Today, I have a special announcement that I would like you all to listen to...

Today marks the 24th year since the horrific events of 9/11. Students, we know that you were not born during that time in order to experience this event but, staff, I know many of us were and lived through those frightful hours and days that followed. We each have a story of where we were when the planes went down and I encourage you to share those stories with your students today. But today, I want to tell the story of courage and empathy. As we know 2996 people lost their lives that tragic day. But among those lost were people that ran INTO the face of danger while so many were trying to run away from it. In total 403 firefighters, paramedics, and police officers sacrificed their lives so that others may have the chance to live. They didn't run in to save their own loved ones, they ran in to save other people's loved ones.

In closing I'd like to share a quote from Sandy Dahl who is the wife of the pilot of Flight 93 that went down in Pennsylvania on that day. She said, "If we learn nothing else from this tragedy, we learn that life is short and there is no time for hate." So today, West Middle School, I challenge you to remember the events of September 11th, 2001 but to also embody the spirit of what came after by helping your fellow classmate and believing that the world is a much better place when hate is replaced by love.

So, this morning, in order to honor those lives lost, I ask that if you are able to please stand in a moment of silence, which will then be followed by the saying of the Pledge of Allegiance.

	(SILENCE)
S	At this time there are no other announcements, so if you are able Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

S	Today is an EVEN day
I first wanted to thank everyone for a great first week back to school. know some of you got a little lost or struggled with your lockersyou showed diligence towards your end goals. I encourage everyone to to think about how you can live out each of our Herd Values, everydayou strive to achieve great things this school year.
	Tonight is the annual Red and Blue night at West High School. This event showcases all of the fall sports and performance groups to kick off the school year. If you plan to attend, you will need to be present with a responsible adult over the age of 21 who will also be there for the duration of the event. Please remember that our behavior expectations at school also apply while you are at any Parkway School District event. It is important to be respectful while in attendance as you are not only representing yourselves but your school as well. If you are needing a bus pass today, notes must be brought to the main office before the end of the first block today.

Tomorrow night is the annual Red and Blue night at West High School. This event showcases all of the fall sports and performance groups to kick off the school year. If you plan to attend, you will need to be present with a responsible adult over the age of 21 who will also be there for the duration of the event. Please remember that our behavior expectations at school also apply while you are at any Parkway School District event. It is important to be respectful while in attendance as you are not only representing yourselves but your school as well. Students, today will be our first fire drill of the school year. For this drill we will be exiting the building. We ask that you please listen closely to the directions given to you by your teachers and to exit the building quickly with the alarm sounds. Congratulations to Emelia E. and Mallory O. for their recent success in their baton twirling competitions. Emelia took first place at the Illinois State Fair and won other top honors while Mallory took 2nd place at the America's Youth on Parade national baton twirling competition in Indiana. Both girls also competed together to win the group competition at the Illinois State Fair as well! Great job girls! Good Morning West Middle and Happy [Tuesday]! This is	and with today's announcements.

S	Today is an Odd day
	Thank you to everyone for a great first day of school yesterday. While I know there were some of you who got lost trying to find your classes or had issues with your lockers, I also saw so many of you stepping up to help one another. That's what living out our Herd Values looks like and I encourage you to continue to live them out each and every day.
	Remember, if you are a bus rider, please make sure you know what bus you will ride going home tonight. If you are unsure, you will be able to ask your teachers during your last class of the day.
